

In conclusion, the Court have endeavored to carry out the trust imposed upon them, both as to the careful expenditure of the monies entrusted to them, and the proper maintenance of the church property, consistent with economy and the comfort of the congregation.

In glancing over our work during the year that has closed, we can hopefully say, "the Lord hath been with us and done for us great things, whereof we are glad."

Respectfully submitted,

W. D. GILLEAN,

Clerk, Deacons' Court.
