36 TAKE THE FIRST DEGREE IN K. OF C.

Ceremony Performed Sunday Few Advances Through Ma- John Iles Succumbs to Injuries Night—Past State Deputy On Platform.

A class of 36 candidates were initiated into the first degree of the Knights of Clumbus, London Council, No. 1419, on Sunday night after vespers. The degree team was composed of Grand knight, M. F. Forristal; deputy grand knight, E. J. Carty; chancellor, Rev. Father Brennan; warden, Harry Quigley; financial secretary, Norbert Corporation and inside guard. James Downs. ley; financial secretary, Norbert Cor-coran, and inside guard, James Downs. Bro. Michael McKeogh, and a chorus provided an impressive program of music, and Bro. Tom Ranahan presided deputy and the oldest K. of C. in Canada, having been initiated in Montreal more than 25 years ago; Captain Ryan, who came to London with the R. C. R., and Lieut.-Col. Claude Brown, district deputy.

Amongst the candidates initiated was Brother Edward, principal of the Christian Brothers' School on Queen's avenue, and head of the community in London. Eloquent addresses were made by Bro. Dunn, Bro. Brown and Bro. Edwards. The attendance of members was very large.

Saturday night a number of the knights attended the performance in the Grand Opera House, and presented a beautiful bouquet to Walter Scanlan, the Irish singing comedian, playing in "Hearts of Erin." The previous night Mr. Scanlan visited the Catholic Club and sang several numbers for the knights, he being a member of the New York Council. Ladies are to be admitted to the gallery when the mock parliament reassembles on Thursday night next.

ARRANGE PROGRAM

FOR COMING YEAR

C. of C. Officials Meet This Week to Discuss Plans.

Lucius Wilson of New York, who addressed the last annual meeting of the London Chamber of Commerce, has written to the effect that he is very enthusiastic over the supply of electric current made available for Ontario cities by the Ontario Hydro-Electric Commission, and he desires a statement of the prices charged in Western Ontario cities. He promises a lot of favorable publicity for London and Western Ontario in the matter.

The members' council chairman and chairmen of the chamber of commerce will meet this week to arrange a program for the ensuing winter and decide upon topics and speakers.

Because a friend by the name of Kissack, intervened on his behalf, John Ison, who appeared in police court this morning on the charge of vagrancy, after having been remanded one week, was given another chance. Ison was arrested one week ago in the early cours of Sunday morning after he, as ne claimed, had spent the night listening to music in a local cafe.

His friend said that he was sure that Ison would go straight in the luture.

that Ison would go straight and luture.

Although the magistrate hesitated thout allowing the prisoner his free-tom because he was out on suspended tentence when arrested, he gave him another opportunity. He believed that Kissack was doing a splendid thing in giving Ison a helping hand.

Douglas Murray, who also had been aeld on the charge of vagrancy, was allowed out on suspended sentence.

More changes are noted this week in hardware prices, and though the majority are downwards, there are some advances.

The new lists on clothes wringers show a reduction, and cotton goods have been lowered again in price, cotton rope, wrapping twines, clothes lines, lamp wick, etc. having been reduced. Lead products continue to decline, and solders, lead pipe and traps and bends are down. Bar from prices have been revised and show assier quotations, and black and galvanized sheets are also easier.

Other lines that are lower include harness and saddlery, some grades of where he had a conference with the commanders who are opposing the forces of d'Annunzio.

It is stated that owing to the immovable position of d'Annunzio the Government intends to send an ultimatum to him containing the threat of an effensive action. It is reported, however, that d'Annunzio would welcome any military demonstration.

There were wild scenes in Fiume Saturday, when members of the autonomous parties, who are d'Annunzio's sworn enemies, were beaten by legionaires in reprisals for their having passed resolutions condemning the poet. Socialists also were attacked.

The old national council passed a resolution declaring that its members will remain true to d'Annunzio. Dowdell explained that he had left his home early that morning with an empty grip to go to his father's home also in this city for some Christmas gifts for his family. He carefully traced the course he took in reaching Clarence and Dundas streets.

"Just as I reached the Talbot Printing Company's office I heard a gun go off and I turned into a laneway and started to run for all I was worth. I was just getting over a fence at the bottom of the lane when something hit me over the head," he continued. The prisoner denied that he had been working steadily in Detroit and that he had come home on Friday evening to do some Christmas shopping for his kiddles. When interviewed by the police the prisoner's wife claimed that she did not know that her husband had gone out on Sunday morning. She said that he had been working in Detroit.

The accused appeared in court with an eye somewhat colored and a cut on one cheek.

According to the police, Dowdell was alleged to have been seen by the boy on the roof of his father's store at 209 Dundas street. The boy notified Constable Pope who was on duty in the vicinity of the corner. The officer climbed to the roof to investigate, but before he got there the man had made good his escape. The man was seen to make a hasty retreat down Clarence street. The final meeting of the board of health Tuesday night will see the permanent retirement of at least one member. E. H.
