A Manufacturer's Clearance of Handsome, Hand-embroidered Quilts,

Bordered With Eattenburg Lace or Hemstitched and "Drawn" in Teneriffe

TO LOOK AT THEM you would think that France was again at work with her lace-making and embroidering. But Japan was responsible for their leveliness. With her genius for imitating, she has produced these handsome bedspreads in true French fashion, bordering some of them deeply with Battenburg lace and inserting others with spider-webs of dainty drawn-work in various effective designs. Furthermore, procuring them as a manufacturer's surplus stock, we are able to offer them at half and less than half the usual prices. Here are particulars

Lot One-Battenburg lace spreads with hand-drawn threads and hand-embroidered centre designs. Sizes 82 x 90 and 90 x 108

Lot Two-Embroidered bedspreads with hand-drawn thread work only. Others with hand-drawn thread work and embroidery

Lot Three-Japanese hemstitched bedspreads with hand earbr cidery and drawn thread work. Also Battenburg lace bedspreads

Pillow Shams and Table Covers at 33 and 48 Cents Each

These, too, are in Japanese drawn work and lace effects—squares suitable for use as pillow shams, bedroom-table covers, tea-table cloths or centre-pieces. They are in two styles, with sizes and prices as follows:

Battenburg lace squares, the centres attractively embroidered, size 32 by 32 inches—priced for Monday at the surprisingly low sum of 33 cents.

Drawn-work squares, likewise embroidered, size 34 by 34 inches—priced for Monday at about half or less the usual amount—48 cents.
