I. A. JENKINS,

RED RIBBON SALE

Big Prices Were Realized at the Re-

The annual red ribbon sale was the most successful sale of this kind everheld at the Repository. The sale commenced at 11.20 a.m., and continued until 7.30 in the evening. There was a record attendance, and it was the opin-ion of the public that the horses of-fered were the finest lot ever offered at fered were the finest lot ever offered at a sale in Canada. There was a great deal of competition in the bidding.

The sale commenced with the standard-bred horses, the Spruce Hill Stock. Farm, headed by the Lord of the Manor. They all sold for good prices and they were a handsome lot of horses, good mannered and good gaited, and showed in their harness to splendid advanin their harness to splendid advan-tage. All the registered horses consigned to this sale were hitched and signed to this sale were fitted and driven by such competent men as Mr. Montgomery of the Dufferin Track; Mr. John Fleming, Mr. Pearson of Montreal, and ridden by Mr. Ed. Lewis of Toronto.

There was not one minute's delay in the sale from the time it started until it ended.

Mr. George W. Kennedy of the Spruce

Mr. George W. Kennedy of the Spruce Hill Stock Farm was well pleased with the results, altho he considered the prices in some cases were not so large as desired, but was more than pleased with the way they were handled, and was satisfied that on the whole they brought fully as much as he expected. Mr. W. A. Lawrason's consignment of standard breds from Preston brought good prices, and the bidding was very brisk. His horses were in excellent shape, and were fast and good actors. There was great excitement when the hackneys, consigned by the Oak Park Stock Farm Company of Brantford, were brought into the ring. "Crayke Mikado" headed the list. This horse won at the first National Horse Show in New York, and first in the class and champion at the Chicago Exposition, and in 1907 he won in the three-year-old class at the Toronto Stallion Show, and won first at the Chicago International Exposition, 1907. There was spirited bidding on this horse and he started at $300 and was finally sold to Mr. Weatherall for Miss K. L. Wilks, Galt, for $255. Warwick Albert was sold for $435 to W. J&-Pearson & Sons, Montreal; Jubilee Performer to J. O. Trethewey for $275; Fylde Beauty to Graham Brothers for $340; Oak Park Belle to W. T. Merry for $355; Oak Park Daisy to T. A. Cox for $375; Master Maurice to Graham Brothers. $355: Oak Park Daisy to T. A. Cox for $375; Master Maurice to Graham Brothers, $600. This was one of the finest lot of hackney horses that one could wish to see. They were all in splendid condition and well cared for.

Mr. Arthur Brown of Leamington consigned a car of fast pacers and trotters, among them Gussie Hal, Rhody M. Pass Master, Scribner, George M. and Miss Skelton. These horses brought big prices.

Mr. Ferriss of Windsor and Mr. J.
T. Brownridge of Brampton also had carloads of excellent stock; and a number of others consigned smaller lots to this speed sale.

Lady Mary. consigned by P. Callen of Toronto, was sold to McMichael Brossof Qu'Appelle, Sask. Jessie Medium was sold to G. Laing of Pickering; Maud Carver to McMichael Brothers of Qu'Appelle, Sask.; Viola to W. J. Pearson & Sons, Montreal, for $300.
