

FURIOUS FIGHTING AGAIN; BOTH SIDES LOSE HEAVILY; MORE GERMAN TRENCHES TAKEN

Paris, June 17, 10.58 p.m.—The official communication issued by the war office tonight describes intense activity along the French front, the Allied forces delivering powerful attacks and the Germans counter-attacking furiously. To the north of Arras the French have carried several lines of German trenches, and are making marked progress toward Souchez. Heavy losses on both sides are reported. The text is as follows:

"We have notified important progress, almost all of which has been maintained, notwithstanding the furious counter-attacks of the enemy, some of which were markedly accentuated today.

"The gains of yesterday were enlarged today. To the north, to the east and to the south of Neuville we took by assault the enemy's first line, and at certain points the second line. The units engaged fought at the point of the bayonet and with grenades under a violent artillery fire.

"Our infantry, after having attacked with great spirit, very efficaciously supported by a fire of nearly 300,000 shells, was obliged to make front during the night of Wednesday-Thursday against violent and repeated counter-attacks, carried out by large effectives, and repulsed them along the entire front.

"We have evacuated only a small wood conquered yesterday morning to the south of Hill No. 119, which the enemy's artillery fire rendered untenable.

"The Germans brought into the engagement eleven divisions, which suffered extremely heavy losses. On our side we have suffered serious losses. The number of prisoners taken by us exceeds 600, including more than 20 officers.

"Our air squadrons have effectively bombarded the enemy's reserves at Ghendey and in the forest of La Folle and dispersed contingents in the act of taking up their formations.

"The grave check suffered by the enemy in his counter-attacks at Quenneville is confirmed by the great number of German dead found in front of our trenches.

"At Rheims an examination of the points where German projectiles fell established the fact that more than eighty shells, several of which were of incendiary type, have fallen on the town, and more particularly on the Cathedral.

"In Alsace our success continues. We have taken Alstaden, a suburb of Metz, then Steinbrunn, and we are continuing our progress on both banks of the Ficht river. The Germans are settling fire to Metzeral.

"The number of prisoners who have fallen into our hands has reached 500, of whom ten are officers and twenty-eight non-commissioned officers. To the west material already reported may be added three bomb-throwers, three machine guns, some field telephones and apparatus for the emission of arphyzing gases.

"An enemy aeroplane has been brought down by one of our machines in Alsace. The two German aviators were killed."

London, June 17.—Another twenty-four hours of fighting in Galicia has developed nothing to stem the Austro-German advance toward Lemberg from the west and northwest, and tonight Berlin claims that the Russians are retreating over their own frontier toward Tarnograd, about four miles from the Galician border.

This means an invasion of Russian territory at a new point, according to military observers here, it may spell ultimate advantage for the Russians in that a general Russian retirement northward into Poland would divert General Von Linington's attempt to crush the Russian centre near Zuzawa, which would effectively sever the communications of the Russian army in southeastern Galicia and Bukovina. The military writers here say that the real danger zone from the Russian standpoint is in the Zuzawa district and along the Dniester.

ANOTHER AMAZING TALE FROM KENT; PADDING PAY LIST

Fredrickton, June 17.—"Col. Sheridan is good to me. He got me foreman's wages and I was trying to be good to him," was the frank admission of Timothy Boudreau today on the witness stand before Royal Commissioner Chandler when he asked to explain certain payments on the Little Buttechee bridge line to John K. Sheridan, son of Col. Sheridan, M.P.P. for Kent county.

"Then we were making up the time, my brother Camille and I, I said to Col. Sheridan: 'Just put in John K. Sheridan's name for what Mr. Sheridan did for me and we did.' We added $15 one month, $15 another and $10 another month. I just took a notion to do this. In three months Mr. Sheridan had not a cent of work. I did extra work at night, lit the lanterns at each end of the

A Beauty Hint

To reduce conspicuous nose pores

Remove that very common skin trouble—conspicuous nose pores—which ruins so many otherwise flawless complexions, begin the following treatment tonight.

Wring a cloth from very hot water and hold it to your face. Do this several times. When the heat has expanded the pores, rather your cloth freely with Woodbury's Facial Soap and rub this into the skin very gently with an upward and outward motion. Repeat this hot water and latter application several times, stopping at once if the nose feels sensitive. Rinse the face thoroughly, first with warm water, then with cold—the colder the better. Then—finish by rubbing the nose for a few minutes with a piece of ice. Always be particular to dry the skin well.

You will feel the difference in your skin the first time you use this treatment. Woodbury's cleanses the pores. This treatment with it strengthens the small muscular fibres so that they can contract properly. But do not expect to entirely change in a week or two a condition resulting from years of neglect. Use this treatment persistently. It will gradually reduce the enlarged pores until they are inconspicuous, and will bring to your complexion that greater clearness, freshness and charm you have longed for.

A 25c cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap is sufficient for a month or six weeks of this treatment. Get a cake today. It is made in Canada and is for sale by Canadian druggists from coast to coast.

Young Sheridan Drew Mr. Pay at 14.

This John K. Sheridan is the son of Col. Sheridan, M.P.P. for Kent. He is 30 years old now and was 14 years old when he started to draw a man's pay from the public works department in 1909. The work on the Little Buttechee bridge, which is just at the door of the representative for Kent began in 1909, and, according to the evidence, the last work was done on it in 1914 when Col. Sheridan's boy of 14 became a youth of 19 and was foreman of the work, drawing $9 per day. According to one of the witnesses, Joseph McDonald, he was on the work all the time and when he was there his father (Col. Sheridan, M.P.P.) gave instructions.

Edward Girouard told how his 10-year-old son Tilman while attending school in 1911 had his name added to the pay list without his father's knowledge, consent or suggestion, and how Felix Michaud wrote the name of the 10-year-old son upon the back of the check, cashed the same, handing him the money, along with the proceeds of the other checks properly payable to him by the public works department, according to Commissioner Chandler's accounting.

Felix Michaud, Girouard swore, handed out the pay checks and when he handed him the one for his ten-year-old boy, Tilman, he said: "I asked him what that was for." "Haven't you a son named Tilman?" he asked. "I said, yes, but he didn't work, he goes to school. I handed the check back to him but he kept on giving it to me and I put it back and said: 'I got enough. I got enough.' He said, 'Keep it. Put the name of the boy on the check and keep it.' I said it must belong to some one working on another bridge."

"Felix said, 'No, keep it.' Then he put the name of my son on the back of the check and I signed my name and he gave me money along with my own money."

Referring to this later Girouard said: "Peter Bernard came to me two weeks after the election and wanted me to pay back the money, but I said: 'Dr. Landry had promise me an investigation and until he kept his promise I would not give up the money. I said to Bernard: 'I don't refuse to give up money, I do not belong to me or to any of my family and I don't want to keep it but I want the investigation.'"

When Girouard finished his evidence he turned to Commissioner Chandler and said: "What will I do with this money."

IT DOES NOT BELONG TO ME! PUTS REASON TO FLIGHT

Instantly Frequently Makes Men Do Extraordinary Things

That even in man instinct is sometimes stronger than reason, is illustrated by these two cases:

There had been shipped on a Mississippi River steamer a box with a glass cover, containing a very active rattlesnake. Whenever any one approached the box the serpent would strike the cover. The owner of the reptile challenged any one to hold his finger on the glass and let the rattler strike at it. There was no danger and it seemed an easy thing to do. First one and then another tried it, but when the snake gave its vicious spring the fingers were invariably drawn back with a jerk. Instinct was stronger than reason and will combined.

A young man in Paris had lost his last sou at the gambling table. Not only was he without means, but he had lost a large sum belonging to his employer. He started for the Seine with the intention of drowning himself. On the way there was a great commotion, caused by the escape of a lion from a strolling menagerie. The animal came galloping down the street and people fled in every direction. Instantly the man who was seeking death climbed a lamppost and clung to the top of it trembling in every limb. "I do love to hear Margaret sing," remarked old Mrs. Blunderby; "she has such a melodious voice!"

When the animal was captured and the danger over he proceeded to the river and plunged in—Pittsburg Chronicle Telegraph.

When a baby carriage was struck by an automobile recently in Manchester, N. H., the baby was thrown out, but was unhurt simply because he landed on a soft pillow which had been in the carriage and which had hit the earth first. Now they are trying to figure out how it happened.

The Old Lady Again.

"I do love to hear Margaret sing," remarked old Mrs. Blunderby; "she has such a melodious voice!"
