THE BEST QUALITY AT A REASONABLE PRICE

Stopping the Growth of Near-Sightedness. Astigmatism is the greatest cause of near-sightedness in children. The strain brought about to correct the astigmatic image leads to stiffness and cramps of the muscles, with headaches, and in severe cases to an actual stretching of the eyeball. The Journal of the American Medical Association says: "The surest way to stop the ever increasing dangers of near-sightedness is to correct astigmatism by means of properly fitted glasses during the growing period. Recent statistics show that in accordance with this method of treatment near-sightedness is becoming less."

The wise thing for you to do is to have your child's eyes examined at Sharpe's.

Builders of the "Big Ditch"

There has just been issued by the Historical Publishing Company of Washington, D. C., a magnificent illustrated history of the construction and builders of the Panama Canal. The editor of this great history is Mr. Ira E. Bennett, with associate editors, John Hays Hammond, celebrated mining engineer; Capt. Philip Andrews, U. S. N.; Rupert Blue, Surg. Gen. U. S. Public Health Service; J. Hampton Moore, Pres. Atlantic Deepwaterways Association; Patrick J. Lennox, B. A., and William J. Showalter.

One of the most interesting portions of the book is that dealing with the feeding of the immense army of laborers. A few paragraphs concerning one of the foods chosen and supplied by the Commissary Department are quoted (beginning page 428) as follows:

"Visitors to the canal who were privileged to get a glimpse of the routine in their life will recall a familiar picture of workmen going to their places of labor carrying round yellow tins. "Often, as they went, they munched a food posited from the tin into the hand. This food, which played no inconsiderable part in 'building' the canal, was the well-known article of diet, 'GRAPE-NUTS.' "The mention of Grape-Nuts in this connection is peculiarly pertinent. Not merely because Grape-Nuts is a food—of course proper food was an integral part of the big enterprise—but because it is a cereal food which successfully withstood the effects of a tropical climate. This characteristic of Grape-Nuts was pretty well known and con-
