NEGLECT OF CHILD CHARGED IN COURT

Montreal Man and Wife Defendants — Orphan Girl Gives Evidence.

Voluntary statement will take place on next Friday.

In the house Mark Twain built at Hartford directly over the fireplace, where one would naturally look for a chimney, there was a great plate glass window looking out of doors. Mark said he had the window put there because it showed sometimes in Hartford and he liked to sit with his feet to the fire and look at the storm, so that he could enjoy the thought of not being out in it.

The death took place at Boston (Mass.), on April 24, of John Edward Hughes, formerly well known in this city. He had been associated in business here for a number of years with the late Adam Young, and afterwards conducted a mantle and hardware establishment in Prince William street. Thirty-eight years ago he removed to Boston, and for the last eight years had been totally blind. While in this city he was a prominent Odd Fellow. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Irving.

The oldest Salvationist in the world died recently in Toronto. She was known in Salvation Army circles as "Granny" Beaver. She was born May 9, 1816, and joined the Salvation Army at St. Catharines (Ont.), thirty-five years ago. By her own request she was buried in her army bonnet.

Ray, of paralysis, leaving a husband and little son, also her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Bingley of Vancouver, and two sisters, Mrs. Louis Reilly of Prince Rupert, and Mrs. Charles E. Smith of Barton. Mrs. Ray was a daughter of the late Captain James Bingley of Barton (N.S.).

The death of Miss Annie A. Doherty occurred recently at Gagetown, N. B. She resided in St. John at one time, but removed to Gagetown some thirty years ago. Miss Doherty, who was in her seventy-eighth year, was a sister of the late H. A. Doherty of the Royal Hotel in this city.

The son could not bring the boat around in time to rescue him. The body was recovered.

NEW HAMPSHIRE PAINTER GETS FIRST HONORS

Few Canadian Exhibits in International Art Exhibition at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, May 1.—American painters ranked high in the international art exhibition, which was opened formally in the galleries of the Carnegie Institute here, the first since the outbreak of the world war. Announcement of honors was made at the founder's day exercises, as follows:

1. Abbott H. Thayer, Monadnock, N. H., "Young Woman in Olive Plush," Gold medal and $1,500.

2. Algernon Talmadge, London, Eng., "By the Cornish Sea," Silver medal and $100.

3. Walter Ufer, Chicago, Ill., "Suzanna and Her Sisters," bronze medal and $500.

Honorable mention—Robert Spencer, New Hope, Pa., "The White Mill," Frederic Bosley, Boston, "Looking at Prints," George J. Coates, London, Eng., "The Spanish Dancer."

The exhibition contains 373 paintings. Of this number America contributed 198, while England sent 83 and France 53. The remainder came from the studios of Sweden, Denmark, Italy, Spain, Norway, Russia, Belgium, Switzerland and a few from Canada.

The founders' day exercises of the institute were large and the artists and scientists. The principal address was delivered by Maurice Francis Egan, ex-minister to Denmark, who spoke on "America in the Diplomatic World."

At the close of the exercises the audience was admitted to the museum where two additions to the permanent exhibit were shown for the first time—groups of African rhinoceros shot by the late Theodore Roosevelt and Childs Frick.

CHARGE AGAINST A POLICEMAN

Montreal Constable Accused of Inciting Attack on Prohibition Officers.

Montreal, May 1.—Chief of Police Belanger has before him a case where a policeman in uniform is accused of having incited a gang of men in a Dorchester street west restaurant to attack and badly beat a provincial revenue officer and a friend who was accompanying him. The case will be investigated by the chief.

This case comes as a climax to other attacks which have been made on revenue officers who are charged with the task of enforcing the prohibition law and as a result there is a probability that in future such officers will be armed.

A WARNING

Mayor Hayes said yesterday afternoon that he had received several complaints from people who had to undergo the necessary nuisance of moving that some teamsters were holding them up for exorbitant rates for transporting their household effects from one place to another. He said that he had made a note of the people complained against and if there were any further complaints, the teamsters would run the risk of having their licenses cancelled.

Why Wait to Swat?

Brockville Recorder: The season for swatting the fly is not yet here. The season is here for preventing the breeding of flies, which is far simpler and easier business than chasing them after they have become numerous. The automobile has reduced the fly population of American cities more than all the fly swatters, poison blotters and the curley-cue sticky papers that adorn the gas fixtures of so many houses in fly time. The automobile has reduced the number of stables almost to the vanishing point, and stables are the favorite places for fly propagation. When they cannot find stables they seek garbage and refuse. Keep it covered. Clean up all the refuse. Leave the fly no place to live in comfort. Make being a fly a joyless existence and he will die off without progeny.
