William street, caused considerable excitement for a time, and badly damaged the wagon, which was owned by Albert Winchester, street superintendent. The horse became frightened in Water street, and bolted around the corner on to Prince William street, and then up King street for a little distance.

It was finally caught by Edgar Fairweather, but not until after it had collided with a couple of teams, and a refuse barrel, breaking a fore wheel, and smashing the harness to a considerable extent.

WEDDING LAST EVENING

A pretty wedding took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Thompson, 152 Rockland road, when her youngest daughter, Edith Graham, was married to Charles Titus of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. D. Marr, B.A., in the presence of a large number of guests. The bride wore a beautiful dress of white silk with lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations. Miss Pearl Thompson acted as bridesmaid, and Miss Hazel Thompson was maid of honor. The groom was supported by George Parker. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents. After the ceremony luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Titus will reside at 148 Rockland Road.

The fifth and last match of the Weldon cup series will be played tomorrow on the local links.

The St. John board of trade has received to the state of the pictures of the Association from Managery Good of the Council from the performance was given they could proceed against the promoters, and this would be done.

The penalty under the criminal code for the pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson prize fight will be shown tonight in the Queen's rink as advertised, seems to be still unsettled. The promoters of the exhibition say that the pictures will be shown as advertised, despite the fact that the license under which they proposed to operate has been cancelled by the mayor.

His Worship said this morning that he had gone as far as he could in the matter and it was now for the chief of police to take what action he thought best. He had done all that he could under the civic by-law.

Amon A. Wilson, who is acting as legal advisor for the Moral and Social Reform Council, said this morning that if the pictures were shown it was the intention of the council to proceed against the promoters of the exhibition under the criminal code regardless of any action that might be taken by the city. There was nothing, he said, that the council could do to prevent the performance but if a performance was given they could proceed against the promoters and the pictures will be shown as advertised. The pict

In the police court yesterday the charge against Dr. Frank Hogan, reported for allowing his automobile to stand in Main street when not actually in use, was dismissed his explanation being satisfactory to the court.
