

THREE SALES HELD

Central Baptist, Queen Square and Ludlow Street Ladies Conduct Them.

Pantry sales still go on apace. Today the Philanthropic Club of Central Baptist church held a rummage sale in their hall in Leinster street. The supply of articles was excellent and found ready sale. Mrs. W. H. Downie, president of the club, was general convenor, assisted by Miss Emma Smith, Miss Daisy Blanch, Miss Rae Wilson, Mrs. W. H. Golding, Mrs. Bliss Smith, Miss Maude Elliott, Miss Maude Logan, Miss Gertrude Wilson, Miss Bessie Bell, and Mrs. G. G. Walters.

Queen Square Ladies. The Queen Square Ladies' Aid held a pantry sale in the lobby of the Venetian Gardens, with a variety of very delicious cookery. Mrs. A. E. Ollivier and Mrs. John Copp were general convenors and were assisted by Mrs. C. W. Dickinson, president of the aid; Miss Jean Hanson, Mrs. T. O. Dales and Mrs. J. D. Howe.

Ludlow Street Choir. The lady members of the Ludlow street Baptist choir held a successful rummage sale, convened by Miss Mae Robbins and Miss Dorothy Raper. The delicacies were soon disposed of, with the other lady members of the choir assisting at the tables. The affair, which was held in the school room of the church, was arranged to raise money to defray the expenses of the new gowns recently purchased by the choir committee.

A Capture Is Made In King Square

The dog catcher was on the job in King Square this forenoon. At 10 o'clock a crowd gathered about whilst he bagged a rollicking tramp canine disporting on the greenward. It was a heavy dog and the catcher had quite a tug to get him safely to the ambulance station, which is to be the official repository during this season. During the capture two aristocratic Airfares with tony brass collars inconsiderately made merry a short distance away but the dog catcher's hands were too full to harvest them as well. King and Queen Square will be very much like the submarine zone in wartime for cruising dogs from now on so owners are given serious notice. A citizen passing through the Square with his fiercest at the time of this morning arrest sized up the situation and hooked his cane into the collar of his dog as an improvised leash.

Keiths Purchase N. Y. Hippodrome

NEW YORK, April 25.—The Hippodrome, which has probably been reported sold more times during the last few years than any other building in Manhattan, was disposed of recently when the United States Realty and Improvement Company contracted to sell it to E. F. Albee, president of the Keith-Albee vaudeville organization. The sale includes the site and structure, and is said to involve between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000. Mr. Albee said: "The Hippodrome, of course, will continue its present policy and management. The transfer of this great property removes it from the real estate market and settles its fate for all time to come."
