and of them went to bed. The next morning Sunday at 9:00 a.m. the soldier about 9:00 o'clock. The soldier had breakfast & then left the room saying that he would buy some cigarettes for me at the Postern. I had not asked him to do this. He did not return. After he left I went up to my room to open the window. I noticed the top drawer of my washstand was not quite shut as if I should have seen. I noticed my watch & chain were missing. My watch was a nickel plated pocket watch & a double gold link.
There were missing from the top drawer. From the drawer underneath, I saw that some money was gone from the little box I kept there. There was 1000 franc note & two 500 franc pieces missing.
The 50 franc pieces were of a special issue commemorating the 1935 Exposition. There was a 1000 franc note left also several 500 franc pieces which had not been taken. The missing money & my watch & chain were in the drawer on the night I left the soldier sleep in my room. I would ask the my bicycle & see if I could find the soldier and see success. I would go to the Ministry Police & they in turn would go to the Lt. Colonel's I made my statement to them there.

On the 11 Dec 44 I happened to be in town & I saw the soldier on the street. I got off my bicycle & approached him. I asked him what he had done & my watch & money. He said at first that he had taken anything & did not know anything about it. When he said he'd go to see the Police & that he would show me that he knew nothing about it & that nothing could be done to him. On the way to the Promoted this soldier offered me 2000 francs & a diamond watch to forget about everything. Because I was a doctor. I refused & insisted on him coming to see the Promoted. We arrived at the Lt. Colonel's & the Lieutenant Major took him.

Accused declines to cross-examine.

The witness having been duly sworn state:

"I was on a shopping day. At 11:00 p.m. I was when I recognized, with the cap on the corner where I was. He asked me if the soldier could sleep & was of some home for the night & I said "yes". He then of me came home & the soldier he something great, then small went to bed. The soldier sleep in my own room. The next morning this soldier came down for breakfast about 9:30 & he left the room about 10:15.
I never saw him again until today. Though he had promised to return in a couple of days my own mind happened to be in the room of the soldier left & he told me that a 1000 franc note & a watch & chain, also two 500 franc pieces were missing.
My own left then on his bicycle to see if could find the soldier. When I had done so also in the room and the soldier, my own & I
