New BLOT ASH SHOR FACTORY.—Mr. Jay.
T. Hurley, late Foreman in Messrs. Francis & Vaughan's Shoe Factory, Paradise Row, has started in business for himself in McSweeny's Brick Building, corner of Union and Smyth streets. The latest machinery for his business is now being placed in the building, and he expects to get in full work ing order in the course of two or three weeks.
Two commodious and well lighted flats will be used as workrooms. It is his intention to manufacture fine goods in boots and shoes and compete with the imported article.
While in the employ of Messrs. Francis & Vaughan, he raised their goods to a very high standard in this city, throughout the Province and elsewhere. Having several
