LIGHT BLUES WIN EASILY

OXFORD DEFEATED BY OVER TWO LENGTHS

D. C. R. Stuart Strokes His Men to Victory in Great Annual Boatrace.

Putney, April 4.—For the third year in succession Cambridge won the 'Varsity boat race to-day, defeating Oxford by two and a quarter lengths. The "light blues" fully justified the confidence reposed in them by the riverside experts and let the procession from start to finish.

The result never was in doubt. In spite of the advantage Oxford gained in winning the toss which gave them the calmer side of the river, the extra stamina of the Cambridge crew quickly sent the nose of their boat ahead and enabled them to assume a lead which they held comfortably to the end.

The official time of the race was 19 minutes 18 seconds. The record is 18 minutes and 47 seconds established by Oxford in 1882, and equalled by Cambridge in 1900. The time last year was 20 minutes and 26 seconds.

The names and weights of the crews were as follows: Oxford—J. E. Somers-Smith (Magdalen), bow, 11st. 1 lb.; C. R. Cudmore (Magdalen), 11st. 13lb.; E. H. L. Southwell (Magdalen), 12st. 8 1/2lb.; A. E. Kitchin (St. John's), 12st. 7 1/2lb.; G. E. Hope (Christ Church), 12st. 12lb.; A. C. McCulloch (University), 12st. 7lb.; H. R. Barker (Christ Church), 11st. 12lb.; A. C. Gladstone (Christ Church) stroke, 11st. 6 lb.; A. W. Donkin (Magdalen), cox, 8st. 8lb.

Cambridge—F. H. Jerwood (Jesus), bow, 11st. 5lb.; G. E. Fairbairn (Jesus), 12st. 7 1/2lb.; O. A. Carver (First Trinity), 12st. 12 1/2lb.; J. S. Burn (First Trinity), 12st. 9lb.; E. M. Williams (Third Trinity), 12st. 2 1/2lb.; E. W. Powell (Third Trinity), 11st. 5 1/2lb.; D. C. R. Stuart (Trinity Hall), stroke, 11st. 4lb.; R. Boyle (Trinity Hall), cox, 8st. 8lb.

The contest brought out the customary crowds of enthusiasts and long before the race started the banks of the river were lined by the people who also massed themselves on the bridges spanning the Thames and on the roofs of the buildings, affording a view of the stream. All sorts of river craft, houseboats, launches and rowboats of every description were moored along the banks. The day appeared dark and cold and it was a threat of rain.

A northwest wind ruffled the water and promised to make the course difficult. Although the race was not scheduled to start until half past three, people began gathering from all directions as soon as it was daylight. Cambridge was a strong favorite in the betting which ruled from 4 to 3 to 1 in her favor.

Both crews appeared for a short practice spin before noon to test their boats. They were warmly cheered. The Cambridge crew used the same boat with which it won in 1907. The Oxford crew received much chaffing because of its recent secret trial over the course. This awakened a tremendous storm of protest from the papers and the public as a violation of all amateur sporting traditions. Each crew was stroked by a veteran. Each had a veteran coxswain and two other old men. The Cambridge style as shown in training gave them extraordinary pace while that of Oxford seemed to produce more lift on the boat.

The crews got off to a splendid start but the quicker stroke of D. C. R. Stuart, of the Cambridge crew, who set the rate at forty-four for the first minute against Oxford's thirty-eight, soon put the supporters of the light blues at ease. At Berberley Brook, Cambridge already had gained an advantage of half a length and at Craven Steps the light blues were a full length in front of Oxford and steadily drawing away from their opponents.

In the clutch that finally came, Gotch slammed his opponent to the mat and came within an ace of securing a firm toe hold. He followed this by lifting Hackenschmidt clear off the mat and slammed him down on his shoulders with terrific force. After the first ten minutes tugging Gotch started to rough it, and Hackenschmidt kept dodging and dodging. The Russian complained to the referee of Gotch's butting. A half hour hauling and sparring failed to satisfy the crowd.

Fifteen minutes more of tiresome work followed, then Hackenschmidt suddenly attacked with fury, but Gotch wriggled away and shoulder to shoulder tactics began again. At 12:15 a.m. Hackenschmidt asked the referee to call it a draw, but he answered by telling him to continue. They wrestled all over the ring, then went down with Gotch on top. Hackenschmidt slipped from the toe hold and then gave up.

HACKENSCHMIDT BEATEN AT LAST

GOTCH WINS TITLE OF WORLD'S CHAMPION

"Russian Lion" Gives in After Two Hours' Wrestling Without a Fall.

(Special to the Times). Chicago, April 4.—Frank Gotch won the catch-as-catch-can wrestling championship of the world from George Hackenschmidt last night after the giants had struggled on a padded mat for two hours before 8,000 spectators without a fall, when the Russian suddenly developed a "yellow streak" and surrendered. The supposed match was for three bouts, but the great defensive tactics of the American took the heart out of "Hack."

The match served to show that Gotch has a defensive system no man can break. For an hour and forty-five minutes he eluded every attempt of the "Russian Lion" to fasten his grip on him.

Gotch side stepped, roughed his man's features with his knuckles, led him, and generally worried Hackenschmidt, until the foreigner was at a loss to know how to proceed. But in the clutch that finally came, Gotch slammed his opponent to the mat and came within an ace of securing a firm toe hold. He followed this by lifting Hackenschmidt clear off the mat and slammed him down on his shoulders with terrific force.
