IN CONNECTION WITH DISTURBANCES IN PARIS

More Meetings Will Be Held to Protest Against Law Closing Unauthorized Congregations.

Paris, July 22.—After the distribution of prizes at a school belonging to an unauthorized congregation in the Avenue Parmentier here to-day, violent speeches were made to the assembled crowds, denouncing the government's action in closing the establishments of the unauthorized congregations. Fighting ensued, the crowds breaking through the police corden and shouting "Vive La Liberte." Francois Coppee, the author and poet, who was the chief speaker, Deputy Lerolle, Gaston Merry and the Abbe Partural, were arrested.

Further Trouble Feared. Paris, July 23.—There is every prospect of fresh disturbances to-day as a sequel to yesterday's clerical outbreaks as protests against the government's en-forcement of the law against unauthor-ized congregations. It now appears that three hundred persons were arrested and released. Fresh meetings to protest in favor of the religious orders are expected to be held to-day, while the Radical and ocialist papers are urging the Republicans to meet at the Pantheon as a

More Arrests. Paris, July 23.—Several hundred persons, chiefly women and children, created a demonstration to-day in front of a church in the Ternes quarter while some expelled sisters were departing. The police interfered and several of the crowd struck them with sticks. Among those arrested were three deputies. They were subsequently released.

RENEWED DISORDERS

The Closing of Unauthorized Institu-tions Has Caused Further Trouble in Paris.

Paris, July 23.1—A serious disturbance occurred at half-past ten to-night on the terrace of the cafe de Musee de Cluny. The police cleared the cafe. Several persons were injured and 25 arrests were made. The agitation provoked by the order of Premier Combes to close the Congregationalist schools recalls to some extent the scenes enacted when M. Ferry, then premier, expelled the Jesuits in 1880.

THE METHODISTS

Have Purchased Royal Aquarium Property in London, and Will Build a Great Hall.

London, July 23.—Robert Wm. Perks, M. P., treasurer of the Methodist Million Guineas fund, announced to-day that the Methodists had secured the Royal Aquarium theatre property, facing Westminster Abbey, on which they would build a great hall, which is to be called the Central Headquarters of Universal Methodism. The price paid was £330,000. The ground comprises 2½ acres, and on it stands Mrs. Langtry's Imperial theatre. It is possible that Imperial theatre. It is possible that some arrangements will be made by which the Imperial theatre will remain where it is, though it may be transformed into an annex of the church house the building of which is expected will begin early in 1903. Since it was opened in 1876 the Aquarium has been a famous place of amusement.

The twentieth century fund of one million guineas, which the British Wes-leyan Methodists began collecting three years ago, for educational, religious and philanthropic purposes, closed December 29th, 1901, with a final collection in the 270 chapels throughout the United King-dom. The results of the day's collections reached about £75,000.
