The thirty-seventh Session of the Medical Faculty of the McGill University will be opened on Tuesday, 2nd November, 1869, with a general introductory Lecture at 11 A.M.: the regular Lectures will commence on Wednesday the 3rd Nov., at the hours specified in the time table, and be continued during the six months following.

The class tickets for the various courses are accepted as qualifying candidates for examination before the Universities and Colleges of Great Britain and Ireland, and also before the Medical Boards of the Army and Navy.

To meet the circumstances of General Practitioners in British North America, where there is no division of the profession into Physicians and Surgeons exclusively, the degree awarded upon graduation is that of "Doctor of Medicine and Master in Surgery." This designation is also appropriate, as it agrees with the general nature and character of the previous curriculum demanded of the candidates for this double rank, as is fully specified hereafter. The degree is received by the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Lower Canada.

To intending students desirous of information upon the best man-
