HOME RULE BILL Enters the final stage in the House

London, Jan. 16.—The Home Rule Bill started on its final stage in the House of Commons, yesterday. Mr. Balfour, at the request of the opposition leader, Mr. Bonar Law, moved the rejection of the measure. The occasion was marked by two speeches seldom excelled in the House, by the Prime Minister, Herbert H. Asquith and Arthur, J. Balfour, the former leader of the opposition, who have no equals as parliamentarians. Other speakers, representing all parties, followed, and the debate finally was adjourned until today, when a division will be taken. The bitterness which bills of a similar nature aroused in the past was largely absent in the discussion.
