NEWS OF SPORT

THE FUR!

ON THE SUSSEX TRACK.

SUSSEX, N. B., Sept. 12.—There was a great crowd at the Sussex exhibition races today, probably the largest in the history of the track. There was, however, a big disappointment to those attending, as well as to the management, in the way the weather man acted. When the races were called, what promised to be an ideal racing day developed into just the opposite. There was a perfect hurricane blowing down the track, making it at least three seconds slow, and had it not been for this there is little doubt but that the morning record would have gone by the board. As it was the time in the four-for-all was 2:13 1/4, and that the horses had to force their way around.

The crowd went out for sport and when Terrace Queen, backed heavily to win, did not make the showing she expected of her, a protest was made against the referee. The judges, however, ruled that the driver was doing all possible to win, and allowed him to remain. The driver of Frank Krohn did not fare so well. He was intoxicated and in the third heat of the 2:25 class was taken down and replaced by Hugh Mahon.

In the free-for-all, Lady Blingen was scratched, leaving a field of four horses. Carina drew the pole and went to the front at once. The other horses were content to lay in behind the leader for a wind shield, but Simmasse made a bad break and lost heavily. It was not until the three-quarter was reached that the horses were forced to the front and in to the stretch with a great burst of speed. Simmasse came with a great burst of speed, but lost to Carina on a short break. Carina was passed by all three, and Gloria came under the wire a winner by a bare length, with Simmasse giving him the hardest chase to win.

The 2:25 class saw some great finishes. Fleetfoot got the pole, but was getting away and going into the lead he acted very badly and was distanced. The race remaining was a gruelling fight all the way, and was bundled around the track. Daisy Wilkes won it, with Meadowvale second, but Daisy Wilkes was the winner.

The summary is:
2:25 Class, Trot and Pace—Pace $300. Daisy Wilkes, 2:14, Hugh O'Neill, 2:15, Meadowvale, Thomas Holmes, 2:16, Sussex, 2:17, Carina, 2:18, West Newton, 2:19, Hazel, 2:20, Terrace Queen, 2:21, C. P.
