FIFTEEN'S CONCERT
A BIG SUCCESS
A Crowded House Enthusiastically Received and Encored Each Number of Interesting Programme

An audience which filled to overflowing the Opera House last night amply demonstrated the interest taken by the citizens of St. John in the fire department.

The exceptionally fine programme provided was listened to throughout with abundant evidence of appreciation and was generally conceded to have been one of the most pleasing musical events of the season.

Among those taking part special interest was taken by Miss Lucy Tonge, who has won many laurels in the United States.

Miss Tonge is herself the daughter of John Tonge, a member of the Salvage Corps. Miss Felix made a decided hit, while A. W. Baird was three times recalled.

Miss Helen Furlong gave a most difficult violin selection and was heartily encored. D. Arnold Fox and Vernon Brille were the accompanists, and their work was all that could be desired.

Chief Kerr of the fire department made a special thank, Members of the department acted as ushers.

HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 15.—The court of the election cases Judge Townsend and Russell, heard a motion today by H. Mellich, K. C., to set aside the election of Mr. Borden, Den and Carney, to O'Malley down for trial on September 3.

Mr. Borden, Den and Carney, to O'Malley down for trial on September 3. The same date as the election of Mr. Borden, Den and Carney.

A gentleman named C. Jenness, of Boston, who owns a fine sporting camp at Medford Lakes, and who spends considerable time there, was arrested by Customs Officer Theo. Doyle, Tuesday evening, for bringing a quantity of liquor from St. Stephen to this city without reporting the same at the custom house. William Lombard, who acts as guide for Mr. Jenness, was also taken into custody, and the team driven by the man seized. The Massachusetts man made a vigorous protest against the action of the officer, but without avail. He was arraigned in the municipal court Wednesday morning. The liquor was for use in his camp, but owing to the stringent enforcement of the customs regulations this fact did not save him from being held up by the officer. He gave bonds for his appearance at court in October.—St. Croix Courier.

Goes to Purchase Horses for the Nova Scotia Government—Grand Free Memorial Work

ANNAPOLIS ROYAL, N. S., Aug. 15.—The Grand Free memorial work is progressing. The wall has been carried with stones from the Acadia cellar and a fine sweep placed in position.

The foundation of the Priest's house has been exposed. The site of the old cemetery has been marked with a stone cross and inscription plate. The site of the Long-fellow memorial has been selected, and the foundation of the old church will shortly be exposed.

Another well thought to have been dug by Colonel Winslow, when encamped on the grounds in 1755, has been located. Kenneth McNeill of Malvern square met with a terrible accident last week by coming in contact with the knives of a moving machine. One of his feet was nearly severed from the ankle and the other badly lacerated.

Four physicians, who were hastily summoned, dressed the wounds. Young McNeill is progressing favorably. On Saturday evening, James Hart, of Sambro, returned home after a drive, when he was met by his five-year-old boy, who ran to meet him, and became entangled in the wheels of the carriage.

Seeing that he was seriously injured, James Hart immediately sent for a doctor, who found the boy's hip out of joint and one of his legs broken. The accident occurred at the I. C. R. yard at Stellarton on Friday evening. The shunting engine was breaking a window. The contents of an empty fat car collided with another train working on the same track with a terrible crash, demolishing the fat car. The accident blocked the line for quite a time.

The body of James Down, Yarmouth, was found Tuesday morning, when he had fallen from the Nova Scotia stock. The coroner's jury returned a verdict that "the deceased, James Down, came to his death by drinking thirty ounces of diluted wood alcohol."

Thurs. Fri. and Sat.
Big New Programme
Ceneview of Bravant
Gorgeous pictorial enactment of the legendary story of the eighth century in German history. Genevieve, wife of the valiant Siegfried is accused of wrongdoing and is banished to the wilderness with her infant to parish. However the sucking child is kept alive by a wild roe and the mother manages to protect it for six years until discovered by Siegfried while hunting in the forest. The pursuit of the roe leads the father to his wife and child. Swift justice is meted the dastardly Golo, the hated scene being a triumph in motion picturing.

The Express Sculptor
In other words clay modellers of remarkable dexterity and artistic merit. One of the highest paid vaudeville "turns" on the European stage today. Will be shown in the big American cities this coming winter.

Angling in Norway
An educational picture of interest to everybody, but particularly to adults, casting light upon the mode of pleasure fishing in the fertile Scandinavian peninsula.

Poor Little Mites
Two wood-chopper's children are lost in a blizzard in the mountainous regions of France, while returning from the camp to which place they had taken their father's mid-day meal. A dramatic recital.

Chasing A Motorist
Ludicrous situation in the country village in which the whole population arises to snipe the man in the benzine buggy. Why they didn't do it.

FINED EACH ONE
TWENTY DOLLARS.
End of Assyrian Case in the Police Court Yesterday—Judge Ritchie's Remarks.

The Assyrian riot case was finished yesterday afternoon in the police court, Judge Ritchie imposing a fine of $20 on each of the five prisoners. In imposing the fine the magistrate delivered a lengthy address, commenting on the serious nature of the riot that occurred early last Monday morning in the Assyrian quarter. He said that it was only by God's mercy that the prisoners had not been indicted for murder, as the weapons used in the riot were of such a nature as to endanger human life. He also pointed out the fact that each of the prisoners could have been fined $100, or could have been sent up to a higher court. They were not to think that because a sentence had been imposed for a simple breach of the peace that such would be the case in the future.

The assault case against Frank Langford was also settled, no fine being imposed. His honor decided that the street railway had certain rights on the public streets. Several witnesses were examined in this case. J. B. M. Baxter appeared for Langford and C. F. Inches for the complainant.
