BOURASSA BLACKBALLED

IN A QUEBEC CLUB

MONTREAL, Jan. 15.—There is an unusual excitement in club and society circles in Quebec over a report that Henri Bourassa, M. L. A., was blackballed at a meeting of the Garrison Club committee of management. Wednesday evening, the 12th instant, held for the purpose of electing new members.
 There is said to be talk of retaliation, and it is even reported that a movement is already afoot to restrain the introduction of politics into the matter, and to punish it by omitting from the committee of management at the next annual meeting the three members of the committee suspected of having cast the blackballs.

OFFERS LAND FOR ITALIAN REFUGEES

Duke Pompeo Litta Has Large Tract in Florida.

Propose to Place About 51,000 Families There on the Co-operative Basis.

PARIS, Jan. 15.—Some details were given today by Duke Pompeo Litta concerning his offer to donate a portion of an extensive tract of land in Manatee County, Florida, to victims of the earthquake in Calabria and Sicily. He said the land was owned by a syndicate of which he was a member, and which his brother-in-law, J. Lamb Perry, of Charleston, S. C., was a member. He planned to work out in Florida a scheme along the lines of his colony in Lombardy where he distributed land directly to peasants and shared with them the revenues derived from its cultivation.

In Florida, the Duke said, the Italians would be given five acres of land each, in their own right, but would be asked to conduct a second farm for the benefit of the syndicate. Wages, however, would be paid for the work done upon the latter. All the details of the contemplated colonization, the Duke said, had not yet been worked out, but he expected that a series of co-operative stores would be established at which the colonists might buy their material, food, clothing, live stock, machinery, etc., at low prices and upon easy terms, or pay for them in labor if they desired. Duke Litta claimed that he was a practical Socialist. In Italy where Duke Litta is known as the "Red Duke," his plans for the colonization of Lombardy were received with skepticism, yet are said to have resulted successfully for the peasants. He says the Florida lands cover an area of 20,000 acres and that he plans to colonize there 5,000 families, or 20,000 individuals.

Manatee is south of the front line and produces oranges, lemons and limes in abundance, together with a profusion of vegetables. It is a climatic tract of southern Italy and Sicily. WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 15.—At the Department of Commerce and Labor, nothing official is known of the proposal the Duke Pompeo Litta of Lombardy, made to the Italian ambassador at Paris, for the colonization of five thousand Messina refugees on an estate owned by the Duke in Florida. It is said at the department that it would be necessary for the refugees to come to this country under the same conditions as other immigrants come to the United States. The offer of a special act of Congress in their favor, no exception, under the law, could be made for them by the immigration authorities.

WINE GROWERS PACIFIED

BY BAYONET CHARGE

OPORTO, Portugal, Jan. 15.—The distress in the port wine growing region arising from a crisis in the wine trade, culminated today in rioting. At Regoa, the troops that were preserving order were fired on by an infuriated mob, and replied with a bayonet charge. It is said that calm has been restored and the troops have returned to their barracks, but that the populace is still worked up against the authorities and are demanding the punishment of the officers directing the troops for what they call an abuse of his authority.

CHILE AND PERU ARE AT LOGGERSHEADS

LIMA, Peru, Jan. 15.—There exists today between the governments in Chile and Peru a misunderstanding over a matter of comparatively minor importance which has resulted, nevertheless, in the recall of the Chilean minister to this republic. This diplomat made his farewell call on President Laga yesterday.

The incident is briefly as follows: The Chilean government offered, some time ago, to place a bronze medal tablet in the mausoleum erected by Peru to the memory of the Peruvian officers who lost their lives in the war of 1879 between the two countries. This offer was accepted by former President Parado, but it was declined by President Laga on the ground that Chile had not fulfilled the terms of the Ancón treaty respecting the provinces of Tacna and Arica.

Much of importance was given this refusal and the ill-feeling grew until the Chilean minister was recalled by his government.

AMUSEMENTS.

BIG NIGHT IN NORTH END THEATRE.

The new Star Theatre in Union Hall North End, will celebrate its first Saturday night with a bumper programme, which means bumper business. There will be five strong film attractions, Miss Von Branders, the winsome soubrette songstress, who has made such a hit with "O'Brien Has No Place to Go," and other late songs; the catchy music and the realistic sound effects. The people of North End are simply delighted with the way this new show-house has started out, and they are not at all stingy with their patronage.

NICKEL WILL BE ATTRACTION TODAY.

With the school children in hundreds at the Nickel this afternoon and the usual Saturday night rush the Carlton street playhouse will be the centre for those who enjoy a cultural entertainment—something entirely out of the rut of ordinary picture shows. The Forrester Italian Operetta Trio is still the great feature at this house and last night the crowds kept wending their way to the Nickel as late as ten o'clock. It will be a great treat for the little ones today. Aside from the Italian singing there will be an extra film feature—a fairy-tale production entitled, "A Grandmother's Story." The Edison picture, "Lord Featherfoot," is another fantasy. Three comedies and Mr. Calmer new song. On Monday the Italian trio will have an entirely new bill and later in the week they will have a great surprise for music lovers—something seldom heard or seen outside the metropolitan centres. Send the children early in the afternoon and be early at night yourself.

SPECIAL COMEDY BILL AT THE PRINCESS.

There is a great treat in store for the children at the Princess this afternoon. The management have made arrangements for a special bill of pictures and songs, and in addition have secured Gibbs and Stevens, juvenile club managers, who will appear at every performance this afternoon. These youngsters are very clever and to see them handle the clubs you would think they had been at the business a very long time. The pictures for today are fine comedy subjects. The Automatic Hotel is a great big laugh; everything is done automatically. The Bald-Headed Actor and the Lady is another big laugh. An Obedient Tooth, you know what it is to have a tooth that is hard to pull. The singing is also good; both singers have fine songs. The singers are Mrs. Jas. Tuffs and Wm. Adams.

CAPACITY BUSINESS AT THE UNIQUE LAST EVENING.

The usual Friday crowds enjoyed the excellent programme at the Unique last evening. The singing of Miss Brewer and Mr. Dick is of quite as great interest as the pictures on this change, and those who have not heard the very best that these singers have yet offered missing their engagement should not miss the last opportunity today. Every care for the large audiences which gather to see the week-end show. The Unique Saturday night is always an interesting one and it will be more so tonight. A brand new subject will also be shown today, taking the place of one which arrived for yesterday's showing and considered by the management undesirable for children.

IS HARRIGAN DEAD?—CASEY A HIT NOW.

Harrigan and Sullivan have had their day, now Casey has his and well deserves it; and to make a contrast, Casey is the latest hit that has ever won fame on the vaudeville stage and is now a double bill with the wonder of the age. Baby Casey will appear this afternoon and evening on the Cameraphone, and it is the last chance to see and hear this child wonder. There are also on the programme five other first class numbers, including "A Picnic For Two," a screaming farce comedy; "The Spanish Fandangos," an excellent Spanish dancing act; "Milton and Orlana," in character and blackface musical numbers; "Sadie Hurley & Co.," in character songs; "Trane and the Stoll," in two excellent singing sketches, all high class acts, making a high class Cameraphone programme.
