

The aggregate outlay necessary for the three years' residence and study qualifying for a degree will, of course, depend much upon the tastes and economy of the student, but may be estimated at about $250 per year. The mere money payment demanded need never, however, exclude a candidate really prepared to benefit by the course of instruction offered, inasmuch as many benefactors of the University possess the right of nomination. Each nominee is exempt from the payment of certain yearly fees, (See Stat. Cap. III, Sec. 2,) besides the fee for a B. A. degree. There being some forty certificates conferring this privilege, it is easy for students to obtain it. If a Divinity scholarship is held besides, nearly the whole cost of education will be covered. The unabridged Calendar supplies all necessary information with regard to these nominations.

Non-resident Undergraduates are admitted to the College Course and Graduation, under regulations which will be found in the Calendar.

The lists of members of the University, winners of Prizes, holders of Nominations, and much other matter are omitted from this Calendar, but will be published again in the full Calendar in 1902.

A general statement of the financial condition of the University is appended.

The examiners for the past Academical year, outside the Faculty, were as follows: Classics, the Very Rev. Dean Partridge, D. D.; Hebrew, the Venerable Archdeacon Smith, D. D.; German, Rev. H. A. Harley, M. A.; Engineering, Prof. W. R. Butler, M. Eng.
