Concerning Extravagance.—Quite an interesting affair came up on Tuesday last, New Orleans, on the 10th, in which one of the great home said "smile" from a vigorous application of a cowhide in the hamper of a lady. It appears this lady, who is married and highly respectable, considered herself insulted by the gentleman on a recent occasion, and while in company with her brother yesterday, she mentioned, and applied the last, while the latter held the former. The parties were all arrested on the spot by Deputy Sheriff, who was passing at the time, and after an examination before Sheriff Goss, were bound over, each, in the sum of $1000, for their appearance before the First District Court.

We have published our paper on this day (Thursday) in consequence of to-morrow being Good Friday.
