NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

Recognized as a Leader of Republican Opinion.

The New York Tribune offers to the public a newspaper which is absolutely representative of the best opinion of the Republican party on all national issues. It is dignified, strong, complete and patriotic. The Daily Tribune is $10 a year. The Weekly, $1. but can be obtained, in conjunction with various local papers, on more advantageous terms. The Semi-Weekly is $2 a year.

A Newspaper and Magazine Both. The Semi-Weekly Tribune, printed Tuesdays and Fridays, is one of the best general newspapers in the country for a wide-awake farmer, professional man, merchant, manufacturer or mechanic. It saves the necessity of buying other newspapers. It supplements admirably a local daily; many people take it in place of one.

The agricultural page will contain this year, in addition to regular features, a weather review, many descriptions of the actual results obtained on small farms, and other matters of particular use to gardeners, fruit-growers, farmers, dairymen and live-stock raisers.

Stories of the War with Spain.

During each week the reader will find a column of "Questions and Answers," letters from correspondents in London and Paris; a page devoted to science and mechanics; home interests and other things which interest women, including the "Tribune Sunshine Society"; some good games of checkers; a series of thrilling stories of actual experiences in the war with Spain, written by soldiers and sailors; and advance information of new enterprises of importance to manufacturers, mechanics and business men.

Market Reports the Standard.

The market reports will be kept up to their present high standard. It is the intention of The Tribune at all times to add to them whatever quotations will render them of greater value. The finest complement paid to The Semi-Weekly Tribune is the fact that it enjoys the subscription of a large number of merchants, dairymen and farmers who disagree with its political sentiments, but who find its accurate market reports essential to the proper conduct of their business. It is always safe to look at The Tribune before one buys or sells country produce. Once a week there is a special market article on one particular topic.

Pictorial Supplement.

With Friday's number there is an Illustrated Supplement, 20 to 24 pages, printed on specially fine paper, full of delightful reading, enlivened with from thirty to fifty half-tone or other pictures. Every reader admits that this Supplement is equal to a magazine in its contents, and better than a magazine in being quicker to lay before its readers perfectly fresh discussions of matters which are attracting attention. Sample copies of Friday's issue will be sent free on application. The supplement contains two pages of humor; a fascinating letter from Ex-Attache, a gentleman who has served at many of the great courts of the world, and who speaks of kings, emperors and noblemen from actual knowledge; book reviews; short stories; dramatic and musical criticisms; the fine work of great architects and artists; letters from abroad; talk on scientific subjects, new warships, etc.; gossip by pungent writers; and, in fact, the whole range of higher topics in which intelligent men and women are deeply interested, and a profusion of beautiful illustrations. The Supplement is the cream of the whole week's work in The Tribune office.

Clubs.

Any reader who may find it convenient to raise a club of subscribers for The Semi-Weekly Tribune is invited to do so, and to send to this office for sample copies, etc.
