

FIVE MEN ON HONOR ROLL ON SATURDAY

Local Boys in Casualty Lists
News Notes of the Military Units.

HONOR ROLL.

165th Battalion.
Jos. Thibodeau, New Brunswick.
No. 9 Siege Battery.
William LeBlanc, Moncton, N. B.
Field Ambulance Training Depot.
Harold W. Ferguson, Woodstock, N. B.
William J. Twist, Fredericton, N. B.
Alfred C. Boutilier, Sydney, C. B.

Five men affixed their names to the honor roll on Saturday. Three of the number reported for duty at the Field Ambulance Depot. Of the other two, one each went to the Siege Battery and 165th Battalion.

More Returned Heroes.

St. John welcomed several more returned heroes on Saturday morning. The party was met at the depot by the reception committee. Among the St. John boys to arrive were Private Sterling, Private Charles Clarke, and Private Longson.

Private Sterling enlisted in the 26th Battalion and has seen considerable service with that battalion at the front. He was wounded in the back, and was compelled to undergo treatment in a hospital for nine months. Private Sterling resides at 105 Britain street.

Another soldier to return after having done his bit in the Empire's war was Private Charles J. Clarke, 261 King street, West St. John. Private Clarke has not completely recovered from wounds he received in the head and back, and he is home on furlough, although it is doubtful if he will regain health sufficient to permit him returning to the firing line.

Private Alex. Logan, another of the party, enlisted in the 64th Battalion but was afterwards transferred to the 55th, in which he went overseas. Private Longson, who resides on Britain street, has been invalided home on account of physical disabilities.

Left for Ottawa.

Lieut. R. H. Bruce, officer in charge of the discharge depot here, and Charles Robinson, secretary of the returned soldiers' commission, left on the 5:30 train yesterday evening for Ottawa to transact business in connection with the work of their departments.

Local Casualties.

Mrs. M. Gifford, St. James street, received word on Saturday that her son, Sergt. W. Lewis Gifford is now in No. 18 Casualty clearing station suffering from a gunshot wound in the back. He received the wound on October 18. Sergeant Gifford who enlisted in the 26th Battalion, is a grandson of the late Ald. Wm. Lewis. Recently the gallant soldier secured papers for a lieutenantancy and expected shortly to take his course.

Mrs. Bonnevillie, wife of Corporal H. Paul Bonnevillie, received the confirmation of the death of her husband in a letter from her father-in-law on Saturday. The sad message read thus:

"Deeply regret to inform you that No. 23708, Corporal Hypolite Bonnevillie, infantry, officially reported killed in action September 26, 1916." Officer in Charge, Record Office, Ottawa.

Mrs. Robert A. Hickey, 14 Sydney street, received word on Saturday morning that Private Wm. L. Hickey was admitted to the 26th General Hospital, Etaples, October 11, with a gunshot wound in the thigh.

Word was received in the city on Saturday to the effect that Private Wm. Joseph Dumais, infantry, has been admitted to No. 23 General Hospital suffering from a gunshot wound in the leg. Word came to his sister in Mount St. Vincent Convent, Cliff street.

Mrs. Wesley Boone, 143 Wright street, received word from Ottawa Saturday informing her that her son, Lance Corporal George W. Boone was officially reported wounded on September 26th. Prior to enlisting he was employed with R. J. Currie, harness dealer, Main street.

The sad news of the death of their son, Acting Bombardier Thos. J. Gorman, was received by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gorman, 78 St. James street. The young man was killed on the 12th of October. Before enlisting the young man was a student at the University of New Brunswick. He enlisted in Major Anderson's Battery in April.

Bombardier Gorman was a pleasant and popular young man, and his death will be deeply regretted.

H. Roy Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio V. Smith, of Smithtown, Kings county, and winner of two medals of honor, the D. C. M., and the Croix de Guerre, was killed in action on September 26th, according to a telegram received by his parents on Oct. 21st.

The gallant soldier enlisted as a private in the 10th Battalion in Calgary. This battalion was known as the "White Gurkhas," and after the commander had been killed was under the command of Col. Guthrie.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

street, received word from Ottawa Saturday informing her that her son, Lance Corporal George W. Boone was officially reported wounded on September 26th. Prior to enlisting he was employed with R. J. Currie, harness dealer, Main street.

The sad news of the death of their son, Acting Bombardier Thos. J. Gorman, was received by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gorman, 78 St. James street. The young man was killed on the 12th of October. Before enlisting the young man was a student at the University of New Brunswick. He enlisted in Major Anderson's Battery in April.

Bombardier Gorman was a pleasant and popular young man, and his death will be deeply regretted.

H. Roy Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio V. Smith, of Smithtown, Kings county, and winner of two medals of honor, the D. C. M., and the Croix de Guerre, was killed in action on September 26th, according to a telegram received by his parents on Oct. 21st.

The gallant soldier enlisted as a private in the 10th Battalion in Calgary. This battalion was known as the "White Gurkhas," and after the commander had been killed was under the command of Col. Guthrie.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

The deceased soldier, who before enlisting resided in the west for ten years, was awarded the D. C. M. for getting over a parapet in front of the German lines and rescuing a comrade. In March he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the president of the French Republic. He was offered a position outside as instructor, but thought that he was needed with his battalion, and refused to go. In the absence of other officers he often took command. He has one brother, Eugene, regimental sergeant-major with the 55th at Shorncliffe.

LATE SPORTING NEWS AND VIEWS

YOUNG ZULU LEAVES FOR OLD ENGLAND

Brooklyn, Oct. 22.—Young Zulu Kid, who has good grounds for calling himself the flyweight champion of America and his manager, Joe Sarno, left on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock on the steamship St. Paul for London, Eng., where Little Zulu is billed to box Jimmy Wilde, the English flyweight champion, twenty rounds at the National Sporting club of London.

This match is made at 112 pounds, the boys to weigh in at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and is booked for the flyweight championship of the world. The bout will take place the latter part of November. The Kid will receive a guarantee of $2,000 and $500 for travelling expenses. Zulu will be the best lad that Wilde has yet met and has all the chances in the world of beating the Englishman, as he is a fighter from head to toes. The Kid was all smiles when asked if he would put Brooklyn on the map, as did the Dodgers by trying to K.O. John Bulls boy. The best part of the match is that both lads were rejected for being too light. Zulu being an Italian, was rejected by the military authorities of his country for his height, and Wilde was rejected for being too thin.

OBSERVANCE OF HARVEST IN CITY CHURCHES

Harvest Day was observed in city churches yesterday when interesting services were held.

At St. Luke's.

The service last night at St. Luke's was devoted to the children, and the members of the Sunday school took a prominent part in the proceedings. The regular choir was supplemented by 50 of the boys and girls from the Sunday school. The address was given by H. Usher Miller, superintendent of the school, who was able to tell of advances during the year in all departments. Fifty-seven children graduated from the primary to the main school and each of these was presented with a Bible. The offering was taken by 8 boys of the senior mission band.

The Thanksgiving offering was closed last night and the handsome sum of $443 was realized. This is the largest Thanksgiving offering the church has ever taken. The members of the church and congregation are busily engaged just now preparing the 150 Christmas boxes which will be sent to the boys at the front. They have 150 names on the honor roll and each one will receive a Christmas box from the church.

St. John's (Stone) Church.

The Harvest Festival was celebrated in St. John's (Stone) Church yesterday by special music. The customary decorations were omitted this year, but the hymns, sermons and anthems were all appropriate to a spirit of thanksgiving for the harvest.

Two splendid sermons were preached by Rev. Hamilton Brown of Upland, who is the acting rector at present. The text of the evening sermon was 11. Kings, vi, 17, and dealt with the subject of angels. The music was as follows:

Morning service—
Te Deum, hymns in "P."
Anthem, "Ye Shall Dwell in the Land," Stainer.
Harvest carol, "Holy is the Seed Time."
Evening—
Magnificat, Maundrell in "D."
Special Canadian hymn, by D. H. Waterbury, sung to St. Finbar.
Anthem, "Sing to the Lord of Harvest," Barnby.
Solos throughout by Mrs. G. K. Bell, Mrs. W. S. Harrison and Mr. Walter Pidgeon.

Grand offertorio in "D" minor and major, Batista, which D. Arnold Fox

IN THE RING TODAY AND YEARS AGO

"So the bruisers of England are coming to be present at the great fight speedily coming off; there they are met at a fitting rendezvous, where a retired coachman, with one leg, keeps an hotel and a boxing-green. I think I now see them upon the bow-lings-green—the men of renown amidst hundreds of people of no renown at all, who gaze upon them with timid wonder. Fame, after all, is a glorious thing, although it lasts only for a day."

So wrote George Borrow, the distinguished traveler and author, of a ring battle of a century ago. This is the centenary of one of those memorable contests between two of the greatest of the bruisers of old England—Tom Oliver and Jack Carter. They met on the fourth of October, 1816, near that famous old village, Greta Green, when, to the surprise of everybody, Oliver, the unbeaten and the supposedly unbeatable, fell in the thirty-second round before the fierce assaults of Carter.

How different the ring battles of a century ago from those now fought! They battled with bare fists, those old timers, and would have scorned the use of gloves. The rings were pitched in open fields, often after a long pursuit by the police. Admission was free to all, since there were no enclosures and no ticket sellers, and the money for which the bruisers fought was usually put up by wealthy backers, most of whom belonged to the nobility. A champion often received less money for a long and grueling contest than would be demanded by a second-rater for a ten-round glove bout today. And sometimes they fought "for love or a bellyful!"

They were not nice, those old bruisers, and their game was a brutal bloody one. Yet for all that they stood as the type and the embodiment of that bulldog courage and determination which carried little England so far—that made the "little light island" the centre of a world empire. Many a Britisher, in this crisis in the empire's history, will say as George Borrow said many years ago, referring to the old bruisers—"let us still hope that a spark of the religion, of which they were the priests, still lingers in the breasts of Englishmen."

rendered magnificently.

In Trinity.

Large congregations attended the harvest festival services at Trinity church, yesterday. Rev. L. Ralph Shermerman preached the sermon both in the morning and evening. A feature of the services was the special music. In the morning the programme was as follows:

Processional: "To Thee, O Lord,
Our Hearts We Raise," Sullivan
Venite to chant Anselmy
Te Deum Woodward
Benedictus Barnby
Anthem: "O Lord, How Manifold are Thy Works" Barnby Recessional: "Praise, O Praise Our God and King" Wilkes
The evening programme was as follows:

Processional: "Come, Ye Thankful
People, Come" Elvey
Proper Psalms to U.S. chants
Magnificat Hoyte
Nunc Dimittis Hoyte
Anthem: "O God, Who is Like Unto Thee" Foster
Recessional: "Now Thank We all
Our God."

In addition to the above several appropriate hymns were sung.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

Clifton.

Dr C. T. London, Canterbury, N. S.; Mrs. H. W. Brown, Mass. C. E. Patterson, Grand Bay; Mrs. F. S. Bishop, Truro, N. S.; Dr. and Mrs. L. DeV. Chipman, New York City; M. A. Lockhart, Toronto; Harry Rich, Montreal, Que.; Miss Margaret A. Riley, New York City; Miss Goodie, Moncton, N. B.; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mills, Boston, Mass.

Park.

J. Whalen, Fredericton; T. Fleming, D. S. Giddons, Truro; C. E. Power, J. Keating, E. C. Corbett, Halifax; J. T. Clark, L. G. Morgan, E. Morgan, K. Carpenter, A. R. Wetmore, Partridge Island; A. R. Hunter, Moncton; F. Fleming, Chicago; D. G. Cronaey, James Baldwin, Halifax; W. H. Lyell, New York; J. L. Henderson, Toronto; Ray Kelly, F. Leachy, Moncton; G. Robert, son, Bathurst; L. McAulay, Amherst; G. W. Hopper, J. H. Muir, Halifax; J. P. McAnn, Partridge Island.

Royal.

W. A. Pickey, Annapolis; R. F. Price, Montreal; R. W. Strong, Boston; W. B. Storer, N. Y.; R. H. Murphy, Bridgeport; M. Chulitz, Lynbrook; Rev. Canon Smithers, Fredericton; J. P. Leves, Montreal; C. W. Bougards, J. Kennedy, Antigonish; L. Governor Wood, Sackville; A. E. Doig, Halifax; H. C. Holland, Montreal; G. Desbarats, Ottawa; C. J. Hackett, Toronto; J. G. Johnson, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Weir, Bathurst; H. J. Harding, F. M. Burditt, Boston; J. Raphael, C. W. Smith, J. E. Whalen, Montreal; A. Smylie, Toronto; F. L. Whalen, Boston; J. S. Swingle, Brantford; W. T. Cole, Toronto; Mr. Piraeus by Entente Allied forces.

ROAN HAL WINNER OF TWO MINUTE PACING

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 21.—Roan Hal, the 2:03 1/2 pacer, took, in straight heats, the $1,500, 2:00 class, pacing race, the feature event on today's card at the close of the Grand Circuit meeting, from Hal Boy, a 2:01 1/2 brown gelding. The race was for two in three.

All five heats were required in the 2:15 class pacing event, with a field of five. Hal Connor, piloted by Childs, took the last three heats straight, while Spring Maid took second in the last three, after having won the first two, with Hal Connor second.

The 2:15 trotting event, with a field of six, was won by Ridgemark, driven by C. Maynor, while Carter took second money. The 2:07 class trotting, three in five, unfinished yesterday, was won by Bonington, a chestnut stallion, driven by Geers.

Summary:

The 2:15 class, trotting, for three-year-olds, with only two entrants, was taken by Harrods Creek in straight heats. Summary:

2:07 Class, Trotting, Three in Five, $1,000.

(Two heats to complete event started yesterday.)
Bonington, ch s, by Bellini, 5 3 1 1 2
Geers, b m, (McDevitt) 6 2 2 1
Miss Directed, b m, (McDevitt) 3 2 2 1
Miss Perfection, b m, (McMahon) 2 1 3 4 4
Zombro Clay, b s, (Valentine) 4 4 4 3 3
Azora Axworthy, b m, (Murphy) 1 5 de.

HIGHEST PRICED PLAYERS

Has any one stopped to figure out just how much owner Lannin made out of the Speaker sale last April?

Speaking of high finance, which quite a few are, this sale was the record-breaker of them all. To begin with, Lannin got $50,000 in cash.

In the next place, he saved $10,000 worth of salary with Walker in Speaker's place.

In the third place, instead of breaking the American League record around August, as he would have done with Tris on hand batting .385, he played to big crowds through the West in September.

and Mrs. F. B. Homer, Boston; G. Mead, Brookline; D. A. Kennedy, Greenwich Hill; H. A. Shapiro, Margaret Riley, N. Y. Victoria.

F. E. Harris, Toronto; F. R. Burr, Belleisle; R. M. Black, Halifax; D. A. Bolelle, New Glasgow; Jas. H. Smith, Montreal; Mrs. Thos. Toal, St. Stephen; Capt. J. T. Rogers, New York; Miss A. McDiarmid, St. Stephen; J. W. Ferguson, Woodstock; W. J. Twist, Fredericton; Z. Garneau, Quebec; A. McCurdy, Montreal; H. B. Durost, Woodstock; A. Tully, Perth, Ontario; M. D. Mann, Hampton; W. C. Pierce, Boston; W. Stuart Loggie, Chatham; Isaac Crocker, Miss M. R. Henry, Miss A. J. Armstrong, E. L. Hubbard, Providence, R. I.; E. M. Johnston, Brooklyn, N. Y.; J. LePage, St. John; C. H. Griffith, Detroit, Mich.; J. C. Hetherington, Waterville, Me.; N. J. Gunner, Madison, Me.; Geo. Gilpin, Hamilton; C. P. McCully, Sussex; M. Garvin, Quebec; T. P. Edgell, Montreal; Geo. R. Ferguson, A. E. McElveny, Fredericton; W. Bradley, Hamilton; J. M. Peacock, St. Andrews; J. H. Pritchard, Toronto; V. Mulhauser, Halifax; W. Watson, New York; Jas. H. Smith, Moncton; W. B. Muir, Annapolis Royal; B. E. Dakin, Montreal; W. J. Cooney, Meganitic; E. N. Peters, Montreal; C. H. Smith, Boston.

STMR. PRINCE ARTHUR OFF HER COURSE

Special to The Standard.

Yarmouth, N. S., Oct. 22.—The steamer Prince Arthur from Boston was nine hours late in arriving yesterday. A heavy southerly gale and the densest fog seen on this coast in years, drove her considerably out of her course. She had run her distance by log at seven o'clock yesterday morning, but where they were could not be told. They could make no marks or hear no sounds. At two o'clock yesterday the clouds and fog lifted for a few minutes sufficiently to show that they were up St. Mary's Bay, as the church at Meteghan was the first point seen. With that as a starting point they ran down the shore and arrived here about four o'clock. She had 267 passengers.

ATHENS IN FAVOR OF UNITED STATES INTERVENTION

London, Oct. 22.—The wireless reports a renewal of the manifestations in Athens in favor of the United States intervening in behalf of the Greeks against the occupation of Athens and Piraeus by Entente Allied forces.

BRITISH FOOTBALL RESULTS

Glasgow, Oct. 21.—Following were the results in the Scottish League football games today:
Celtic, 0; Morton, 0.
Third Lanark, 1; Rangers, 1.
Ayr, 1; Aldrie, 1.
Dundee, 3; Hamilton, 1.
Falkirk, 0; Hibernians, 1.
Motherwell, 4; Queens, 1.
Patrick, 0; Dumbarton, 0.
Hearts, 0; Clyde, 3.
Aberdeen, 1; Kilmarnock, 1.
St. Mirren, 0; Raith Rovers, 0.

ABOUT THE BOXERS.

Harry Wills, the colored heavy weight, is so desperate to get on with some of the white heavies that he offers to take on any two white men for 10 rounds each the same night. He will wager, he says, that he will stop both inside of the limit.

Angie Ratner, the ex-National amateur champion welterweight, will meet Al Badoni, the French champion, in New York Oct. 26.