EXPENDITURE.

During the year which has now elapsed, the General Committee have made the following appropriations.

LAY READERS.—As the Clergy of the Province have not been assembled in visitation during the year, the question of the continuance of this Branch of the Society's operations remains as it was at the last Report. No additions have been made to the number; and those which have for some time past been receiving gratuities from this Society, are aware that they will only continue to do so until the question shall have been disposed of by the opinions of the assembled Clergy.

In this branch of the Society's operations there have been paid the following sums:

To Mr. J. A. Jost, Lay Reader at New Germany, and } £20 0 0
