

the

GAZETTE

dalhousie university's student newspaper volume 120 number 3 september 24 1987

I

Imagine a university where only the professors who express the 'correct' beliefs are hired and those who don't toe the accepted political line are quietly dismissed.

You don't need to use your imagination, because, according to many academics, this happens regularly at Canadian universities.

CHRIS LAWSON EXPOSES
THE PROBLEM WITH

LEANING

LEFT