PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE

MEMORANDUM

Friday,
September 5,
1924

MR. KING:

In Mr. Robb's absence I discussed with Mr. Russell this morning your comment on the last sentence of the draft cable to Premier Bruce. Mr. Russell said that in view of Mr. Robb's attitude as indicated during the discussion yesterday, he was quite prepared to take the responsibility of deleting the sentence in question, (namely: "Exportations of these products to Canada under reduced duties should be of material advantage to Australian producers".), and did so, signing his
