Ottawa, May 27, 1907.

Gentlemen,-

In reply to your letter of the 23rd inst., relative to timber cut in trespass by or for Smith & Henderson, I have to state that the Indian Agent reported in February last that it was impossible to have a recount of the timber made until the swamps dried up in the spring, and, no doubt, he can inform you as to what the prospects are for an early recount.

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.
