A smart sailor climbed a high pole. He gained a prize of four dollars. His friends sent him a young lamb. They were sorry that he froze his thumb. Give him a whole basket of peaches.—The tailor is greedy but honest. He kindled a wood fire to heat his irons. He will press the creases out of your jacket. Wait here until he sews the collar of my coat.—John hurt his thigh. His whole limb is sore. Until it heals he cannot walk. He has ceased sighing and dozed off to sleep. The doctor comes in a coach. How well he handles his horses!—Many young beasts graze near a brook. Their tails are never still. They seem to enjoy the sweet grass. Write for more yeast. Here is a pencil. There is no sign of candle grease on the comb.

Beech trees and lilacs grew by the school. Some birds screech when angry. One woman made a clever speech.—A keen breeze made me sneeze. Hot water may burst the milk bottle. Few creeks freeze to the very bottom.—My steel skates have strong screws. A scrap of iron scratched my thumb. In kicking a football I burst it.—Hear the woman screech! Pussy has scratched her cheek. The lilac buds may freeze. When the bottle burst the bottom fell out. Some pupils are clever.
