

The Old Reliable Route!

ST. LAWRENCE & OTTAWA RAILWAY,

Shortest, Cheapest and Best Route

FROM ALL POINTS,

East and West, to Ottawa.

Sure Connections with Grand Trunk Trains.

Ask for Tickets via Prescott Junction.

Smooth Track—Quick Time—Comfortable Sofa Cars.

ALL TRAINS

Connecting with Grand Trunk Night Express.

Elegant Palace Cars by Day.

Chaudiere Extension

being now open for Traffic, Merchants can have Freight delivered at either Sussex Street or Richmond Road. Arrangements for Passenger business will shortly be completed.

THOS. REYNOLDS,
Managing Director,

A BR

THE following is that worldly-widow of SHREWSBURY, who "imitated," for she the feelings of other condemning her vice her energy and industry would have been stricken by her age commanded man has by his fires higher aim than to her as life's most precious that she does not regret

Elizabeth Hardwick, Esquire, of Haverhill, in Derbyshire. Her husband was large, but Elizabeth was a marriageable age, larger still; and with that intent man's health. Mr. Barlow standing; and in token of his affection, except the whole of his property short time after the wife a childless widow.

Having thus got Barlow cast her eyes on to share her property, Cavendish presents seems really to have been broad, his fortune William also appears young wife, and to One of her fancies was Sir William Cavendish a mansion which had ever since her day—sure was left to her. by her orders, until "Bess of Hardwick" continued to build." She wife for many years, their union," but due Chatsworth went on was as yet unfinished.

By the death of her husband, she was once more free. Although her beauty was unimpaired, Sir William Cavendish, threw himself into the arms of the captain of Queen Elizabeth of England; he was rich. The crafty widow, for there was a needed first to be reformed the father of a family that he should discontinue sessions upon herself marriage then took

* Through these came the ancestors of the distinguished family. second, William, became the third, Charles, Newcastle. Her eldest son, Henry Pierrepont, Elizabeth, the second Stuart, Duke of Lennox, ill-fated husband of came the father of policy, Lady Arabella, married Gilbert, band of "Old Bess," her mother, namely,