Charlie and the Robin's Song. One summer morning early, When the dew was bright to see, Our dark-eyed Charlie Stood by his mother's knee. And he heard a robin singing In a tree so tall and high,

On the topmost bow 'twas swinging,

Away up in the sky. " Mamma, the robin's praying, In the very tree-top there; Glory! Glory! it is saying, And that is all its prayer. But God will surely hear him, And the angels standing by, For God is very near him, Away up in the sky."

"My child, God is no nearer To robin on the tree, And does not hear him clearer Than He does you and me. For He hears the angels harping In sun-bright glory dressed, And the little birdling's chirping Down in their leafy nest."

" Mamma, if you should hide me Away down in the dark, And leave no lamp beside me, Would God then have to hark? And if I whisper lowly, All covered in my bed. Do you think that Jesus holy
