

An Account of general contingent Expences paid.

An Account of unforeseen contingent Expences paid.

An Account of Salaries paid.

An Account of Roads.

An Account of the Light-House.

An Account of Drawback Certificates.

An Account of Fines and Forfeitures.

An Account of Bonds and Notes of Hand lodged in the Treasury.

An Account of Particulars of Money paid for Interest on provincial Securities, as charged in the General Account.

An Account of Demands on the Treasury the 9th June, 1772.

Ordered, That Mr. Butler, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Bridge, be a Committee for Examining the said Accounts, and to report thereon to the House.

Committee appointed to examine them.

Ordered, That Mr. Conge, and Mr. Campbell, do wait on his Honor the Lieutenant Governor, to desire he will please to order to be laid before the House, an Estimate of the Expence of Government for the Ensueing Year.

Committee Ordered to wait on Lieut. Governor for an Estimate of expences of Government.

Then the House adjourned till To-morrow 12 o'Clock at Noon.

Friday June 12th, 1772.

The Committee appointed to prepare an Address in Answer to his Honor the Lieutenant Governor's Speech, reported an Address prepared by them accordingly, which being read, and agreed to.

Address to the Lieutenant Governor, reported.

Mr. Speaker and the Members waited on his Honor, and presented the same as follows.

Presented.

To