Official Inspection of Grand Trunk's Ontario Lines.

Three of the Grand Trunk officers—Mr. H. E. Whittenberger, General Superintendent of Ontario Lines, Mr. W. P. Fitzsimmons, Commissioner of Industries, and Mr. J. B. Duval, General Superintendent of Car Service—have just completed a tour of inspection in the St. Catharines, Thorold, Welland and Port Colborne districts. The Grand Trunk has a network of busy lines in this southern section of Ontario and the officials journeyed from point to point in a special train. The road and its equipment were found to be in excellent condition with an ample supply of cars to meet the demands of the ever growing traffic. The requirements of the new industrial plants, including calls for the construction of sidings, were examined and plans were made to supply extra shipping facilities where necessary.

"Industrial development is proceeding rapidly in these districts," said Mr. Fitzsimmons, Commissioner of Industries, in speaking of the inspection tour.

"There is no pessimism among the manufacturers but on the other hand a hopeful outlook is general. New patterns, better designs are being sought and they are looking forward to a future not of commercial depression but of active trade."

"The deepening of the Welland Canal is causing quite a 'boom' in trade in that zone. Agricultural and fruit growing prospects are very bright and new industries are being planned. The Forest-Sarnia District between the Grand Trunk Main Line and Lake Huron is coming along very fast and again territory in fruit raising for a great deal of money is being spent there on the orchards. The flour mills at Goderich and the pig iron plant at Port Colborne are busy—indeed industrial conditions generally were found to be very satisfactory."

ICE CREAM CONE HOLDER

Enables Dealer to Carry a Number of Cones in One Hand

Under ordinary circumstances, a person can carry only about three ice cream cones in one hand, and the hands of the average dealer in ice cream cones are not such as one would care to eat out of. An Iowa man has patented a device for carrying these confections. The holder is itself cone-shaped and has a wire running up from it with a loop at the top. The holder is shallower than the ice cream cone, so that the latter may

HANDS DON'T TOUCH CONES

Cones can be placed in it and removed. By slipping the wire loops over his fingers a dealer may carry a dozen cones without trouble and in a much more sanitary fashion than if he carried them in his hands. Furthermore, if a cone is held in the hand for any length of time the heat of the hand will cause the ice cream to melt.
