RUSSIAN POLICE BLOWN TO PIECES

Terrorist Assassination at Odessa Today

Three Officers Were Horribly Mutilated and Seven Others Injured—They Were Kicked for Cruelty

ODESSA, May 20.—The superintendent of police of Odessa and the two chief detectives of this city were shockingly dismembered and killed and seven other persons were seriously injured by the explosion of an infernal machine in the Central Police Bureau this morning.

The machine was deposited in the bureau just before it exploded by two men and a girl. The police pursued and wounded and captured the men, but the girl escaped. The leader of the trio turned out to be a Terrorist named Tolstokoff.

The detectives were bitterly hated by the Terrorists, one of them participating in putting the outbreak of 1905 here and the other was nicknamed "The Hangman," because he had tortured political prisoners.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 20.—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Nikolai Lenin, leader of the majority faction now attending the local Democratic Congress in London, on the charge of high treason. He will be taken into custody if he returns to Russia.

The warrant reads: "Vladimir Ulanoff, alias Lenin," and is said to have identified him as a noted radical leader of the early nineties and a brother of the Ulanoff who, with four comrades, all armed with bombs, was arrested in 1887 while lying in wait for the carriage of the Emperor Alexander II, and was condemned to death and executed. Vladimir took up the mission of the brother who was executed and has continually been hunted by the St. Petersburg police. He successfully evaded capture until 1897 when he was arrested and sent to Siberia for organizing the first political strike in Russia, which was the precursor of the great general strike which wrested the present constitution from Emperor Nicholas in 1907. Vladimir escaped in 1901, disappeared, reappeared in St. Petersburg under the name of Lenin, after the publication of the Americanist Decree of 1905 and immediately resumed his old ascendancy in the Social Democratic party. He laughed at the endeavors of the police, who believed him to be a new leader, to arrest him, and he boldly declared himself a candidate under his real name, for election from St. Petersburg to the second parliament.

Recently, however, the police determined to arrest him, and he was removed to Finland.

DYNAMITE BLOWS FARMER TO PIECES

BELLEVILLE, Ont., May 19.—The township of Belleville, Prince Edward Co., shortly before 8 o'clock last evening, Elisha Huff, a very prominent farmer, was blown to pieces and instantly killed.

Huff was post proprietor of the Huff, Sprague Telephone Co., and was engaged putting up poles. After a hole had been dug he placed in a charge of dynamite, and after igniting the fuse walked away. A few steps, then returned and placed his hand in the hole just as the charge exploded, tearing away his head and shattering his body into pieces. Those assisting him think he must suddenly have become either demented or dared, as he was generally careful. He was 55 years of age, and leaves a widow and three grown up sons.

BELIEVE INCREASE IS GIVEN ALL ALONG LINE OF GRAND TRUNK RY.

MONTREAL, May 19.—The first hearing in connection with the Lemaire conciliation law ended here on Saturday, when the board which heard the dispute between the Grand Trunk Railway, its mechanics and the company handed down a decision. This was not made public, but it is learned that there is an increase granted all along the line, said to be a substantial one. The men who went out on strike a year and a half ago are to be taken back. The report is a very detailed document, and establishes rules and rules for settling disputes. It is of course not binding on either company or men, but it is expected that both will accept.

General Manager Hays is stated to have expressed his satisfaction with the work of the board, which was composed of Prof. Adam Shortt, Kingston, as chairman, J. S. Nesbitt, K. C., and J. G. Donagan, representing the company and men.

HALIFAX BANK CLERK PROBABLY FATALLY HURT

HALIFAX, May 19.—Trevor Smith, a clerk in the Royal Bank of Canada, sustained probably fatal injuries on Saturday afternoon by being thrown from his horse while out riding. The horse was running at the corner of Prince and Water streets and Smith struck the back of his skull on the curb stone, sustaining concussion of the brain. He was taken to the Victoria General Hospital, and tonight very little hope is held out for him. He has been unconscious ever since the accident. Smith is an Englishman and his parents are now in the old country.

For several years his father was stationed here in the commissariat department of the Imperial army.

RUINS OF THE HISTORIC ALHAMBRA.

HISTORIC ALHAMBRA MAY COLLAPSE AT ANY MOMENT

View of the Alhambra

Court of the Myrtles, Alhambra

Well of King Charles, Alhambra

The court of the Lions in the Alhambra

MADRID, May 17.—A dispatch from Granada states that the Alhambra is in imminent danger of collapse. The governor of Granada has called a meeting of prominent citizens and experts for Monday next in order to take immediate measures to avert this national catastrophe.

The portions most affected include the hall of the ambassadors, the state reception room of the Moorish monarchs, which is the most richly ornamented room in the Alhambra; the tower of the Salaes del Tribunal and the court of the harem.

AN HISTORIC BUILDING.

When Granada had become the capital of that was left of the Moorish dominions in Europe, King Mohammed II, generally written, began the erection of a splendid palace citadel upon the heights north of the city.

This was in the year 1288. It was not until 1354 that the magnificent structure was completed and embellished with its rich Oriental adornment by Yusuf Abdal-Hazir.

Erected upon a terrace about 2,500 by 675 feet, the Alhambra was surrounded by a wall over a mile in circuit, having an area of about 1,700,000 square feet. The tower of the Salaes del Tribunal and the court of the harem. It was called by the Moors Kalat el Hamra, "the Red Castle."

Designed as a fortress as well as a royal palace, the Alhambra was capable of accommodating in its numerous rooms, corridors and courts an army of 40,000 men, although the various Moorish power was never able to garrison more than a number within its walls.

Within the walls were beautiful gardens, an inner protected citadel, a gate of justice, a watch tower and the royal palace itself, the interior ornamentation of which was a dream of artistic lavishness.

DESOLATION NOW REIGNS.

Much of the original structure is gone. What remains is grouped about two large oblong courts, the Court of the Lions, 60 x 140 feet, and the Court of the Myrtles, 74 x 140 feet. There are still a number of porticos, pillared halls, small gardens and a mosque.

Long since have the beautiful halls of the Alhambra been desolate. Many of them were in ruins a century ago. The towers are crumbling, the gardens are tangled jungles of weeds and the fountains are falling to pieces.

The lower halls and corridors, the courts and porticos have come to the old estate of a sheltering place for hordes of beggars, gypsies, indigent men and women and dirty, unkempt children.

SWARMS OF BEGGARS.

Tourists are continually beset by swarms of these beggars, whose importunities and wallings make a visit to the old pile exceedingly unpleasant. Most of them are in rags and many exhibit festering sores while appealing for alms.

Not far from the Alhambra a numerous colony of gypsies has taken possession of a hillside. There they live in caves dug in the hill, a filthy, miserable lot of persistent mendicants, pouring forth in crowds whenever they see a visitor approaching the old palace.

Such is the sad fate of the beautiful place that has been so famous in legend, song and history.

1,000,000 PEOPLE MUST STARVE, SAYS MISSIONARY

Alarming Report Received from Shanghai, China.

Agent of American Bible Society Writes that Four Times that Number May Die—Children Being Offered for Sale by Parents—Country Denuded of Every Green Thing.

BOSTON, Mass., May 19.—"Not less than 1,000,000 people must die, and it is not improbable that four times that number will starve," is the declaration contained in a report on the famine situation in China, made by Rev. John R. Hykes, agent of the American Bible Society at Shanghai. The report was made public tonight. Mr. Hykes says that "with the funds at present in hand and in sight the relief committee can keep 100,000 persons alive until the end of June, when it is hoped they will have at least a partial crop."

Mr. Hykes reports as follows: "The country has been denuded of every green thing. Roots of grass and weeds have been dug out of the frozen ground for food and the bark stripped from trees and eagerly eaten. The people are dying of starvation. Whole families have been found lying dead in the open. The sufferings are indescribable. 'A very conservative estimate of the population of the afflicted area is 15,000,000. The cause of the famine was excessive rains, which fell almost without intermission for nearly one hundred days.'

"Last fall when John B. Moran was the gubernatorial candidate of three parties—Prohibition, Democratic and Independence League—it was rumored that a cross might be marked on the ballot against his name in three places, or in only one place and the ballot would not be invalidated in either instance.

"If, however, a voter intends to cast his ballot for Fitzgerald the mayor, a cross opposite each John B. Fitzgerald's name on his ballot opposite marks a cross on his ballot opposite the name of Fitzgerald the roofer. It will mean that one vote is lost to the mayor. Again, if the voter, acting on the mistaken assumption that both men are one and the same and marks a cross opposite each John B. Fitzgerald, the ballot will be invalidated.

"The candidate of the roofer's strenuously denies that his candidacy is being engineered by practical politicians in the hope of defeating Mayor Fitzgerald's re-election through the errors that must naturally result from the similarity of names. He says that he is not attracted by the $10,000 annual salary of the mayor, but that he is inspired by an honest desire to be a candidate of the plain people and workingmen.

BOSTON MAYORALTY ELECTION WILL BE COMPLICATED

BOSTON, May 19.—Two mayoralty candidates bearing the same name but representing radically different platforms, promise to complicate the political situation in this city when the municipal election is held next December. One of the candidates is the present mayor, John F. Fitzgerald, who is expected to be once more the candidate in the hope of defeating Mayor Fitzgerald's re-election through the errors that must naturally result from the similarity of names. He says that he is not attracted by the $10,000 annual salary of the mayor, but that he is inspired by an honest desire to be a candidate of the plain people and workingmen.

POMP AND CEREMONY ATTENDED BAPTISM OF PRINCE OF ASTURIAS

MADRID, May 18.—With even more pomp and ceremony than attended his first presentation to the officials on the day of his birth, May 10, Alfonso, prince of the Asturias, was baptized at noon today in the private chapel at the royal palace in the presence of the royal family and state and court officials, the representatives of the foreign powers and a host of grandees and other important personages. The greatest watchfulness has been observed over the baby prince since his birth, special guards having been stationed day and night outside the bed chamber, for Spanish custom does not permit any possibility of a changeling being fostered on the infant.

The task of the watchers was not over until this morning, when the infant, all unconscious of his importance, lay in the cradle before the brilliant scene enacted in the beautiful little chapel of the palace.

MADRID, May 19.—Owing to the many imperative duties requiring her attention Queen Victoria has given up the idea of nursing the Prince of Asturias, and a nurse has been obtained for him from the province of Santander.

SILMA, May 17.—The government returns published here today show that the deaths from the plague throughout the island for the six weeks ending May 11, reached the appalling total of 451,892; in the Punjab alone 288,771 deaths occurred.

GEN. KUROKI PLACED WREATH ON TOMB

As Young Colonel He Had Waited on General U. S. Grant 28 Years Ago

NEW YORK, May 18.—When twenty-eight years ago General U. S. Grant in his tour of the world was the guest of the Emperor of Japan, one of the officers assigned to attend to the young colonel in the army who today as General Kuroki visited Riverside Drive and there with impressive oriental ceremony placed a laurel wreath upon the American's tomb.

Accompanied by General and Mrs. D. Grant, General O. E. Wood and Major Charles Lynch, General Kuroki's party proceeded in automobiles to the tomb this afternoon. General Kuroki was the first to alight. In his hand he carried the wreath. As the party entered the tomb all removed their hats and General Kuroki advanced toward the sarcophagus. When about fifteen feet away he bowed and then as he proceeded step by step he continued to bow. When he reached the tier he stopped and an aide descending the avenue steps placed the wreath in position. For several minutes the party stood in silence, then retracing their steps entered the automobiles and were driven back to the Hotel Astor.
