The sock merket continues in about the same condition that it has for month past. The sales of the past week are little more than for the previous one, but the improvement is not of any great moment. The sales now for a week amount to about what they used to during the flurries of last year in a day. The out look for a better market is brighter than it has been, and brokers say that they an ticipate considerable of a flurry in from 30 to 50 days, and from then on for considerable period, they think, the market will be lively and prices high. It is a characteristic of the stock market that these periods of dullness come and go Some people compare the dull period in 1897 to the present one, and allege that the stock depression which is now being passed through is severer than the one in 1897. This is not true, for there were weeks in 1897 when the sales did no amount to as much as they do now in single day. The depression then was caused by the period of wildcatting of 1895 and 1896, and was the outcome of the bursting of a number of overboomed but worthless mining projects. The cause o the existing depression is totally different. It is the result of the war, the labor troubles, which have happily passed away, and the intense mercantile and in-dustrial activity which has caused money, hitherto used for speculation and invest ment in mines, to be absorbed for man ufacturing and mercantile enterprises. A a result even the standard stocks are se ling far below their intrinsic values. which is an abnormal condition of affairs and

Giant has sold some during the week,

Okanogan is selling for from 2 to 2 1-8. There has been considerable of this stock purchased during the past few weeks in Montreal, and it is thought a syndicate there is quietly endeavoring to secure control. There has been considerable inbefore the payment of dividends will be resumed.

Tamarac is selling for from 5 to 5 1-2. It is thought that the company will, within a and Colonel Haywood and the inhabitants tew days, make the announcement of the reorganization of the company. The pian in contemplation is to make the assessable siderable quiet buying at the existing figure, which is about 13 1-2. Mr. Duncan McIntosh, the superintendent, who shut down the property and went East, has re- Ironsides. Jealings in the shares.

Fagle is holding its own around $1.46. There probably will be no great advance in the price of this stock until a bound to somewhere in the vicinity of the figures at which it stood before the shut down.

Centre Star is in good demand, and on the local board one block of 500 was sold vesterday for $1.58 and another for $1.57 1-2. The stock is firmly held, and where a little under the quoted price it is quickly taken. The impression prevails that the Centre Star is the biggest mine

Evening Star is firmly held, and yester day on the board 1,000 was sold for 10 and another 1.000 for 10 1-2.

There has been considerable trading in Blacktail in Spokane during the week. The ore body recently uncovered is both wide and rich and the Republic papers speak of the Blacktail as the second best in that camp, Republic being first. It sold during the week for as high cents. Republic sold during the week for from $1 to $1.05.

On the local board 11 is asked for King and 8 1-2 bid. Mr. Ross Thompson, who has just returned from the Oro Denoro, reports that another vein, which is 20 feet wide, and which carries good values in copper has been uncovered

FIRE IN SUMMIT.

The B. C. Mine Runs a Great Chance of Being Destroyed-Stored Dynamite.

Grand Forks, May 2.-The office, shaft and powder houses of the B. C. mine in Summit camp had a narrow escape from destruction by fire yesterday. A heap of brush along the railway spur near the dump was being burned, and the sparks, carried by the wind, ignited the adjacent dry grass, trees, cordwood, stumps, etc. Soon it expanded over several acres. The heat was terrific.

All the miners above ground were formed into a bucket brigade, directed by Superintendent Scrafford and Accountant Mackintosh.

A fire hose did good service but the and the price hangs around the 2 cent flames were not checked until they had eached within 20 feet of the powder house, where thousands of pounds of explosives were stored. One shack was destroyed, and the occupant, a miner, had a narrow escape. Standing on the spur were a number of cars loaded with dyna-

Invitations are out for a complimentary banquet to be given by the citizens of Grand Forks at the Yale tomorrow evening to T. E. Kenny, president of the Merchants' Bank of Halifax, and J. M. Smith, manager of the Rossland agency. Both visitors are in Republic inspecting the agency there.

James Mackinnon, inspector of the Eastern Townships Bank, has returned east, delighted with his sojourn in the Boundary country.

"The primary object of my visit," he said, "was to inspect our branch at Grand Forks. I was greatly pleased with the showing made. Mr. McLaughlin, our local manager has worked up a nice business and has secured a good class of cusomers. We will establish a branch in tive institution it may be an object for us to extend the scope of our operations in the west; money in the way of deposits is flowing in upon us in the east, and it is not always easy to make good investments. Winnipeg and Vancouver naturally occur to me as favorable points for the establishment of branches, but this will be a matter for the decision of our directors. "After visiting several camps I must admit that my expectations of the mineral wealth of the Boundary have been more than realized. In the east I was inclined to discount much of what I heard about the mines; it required a visit to dispel my illusions. After inspecting the Knob Hill Old Ironsides, Victoria and City of Paris I was simply astounded at the amount of ore in sight. Eastern investors like my-self, of course, had implicit faith in Messrs. Miner and Graves. Mr. Miner is a gentleman who has handled and handling vast industrial enterprises successfully, whilst we always realized that right place. Their success here is unquestioned. I have been disabused of the idea that mining is a risky business. With the exercise of judgment it is just as safe legitimate and profitable as any industrial project. This is the belief I will disseminate on my return. Many will realize its truth when too late. I should not be surprised if British Columbia became the wealthiest province in the Dominion with-

The C. P. R. Pays Up What It Owes in

Vancouver, B. C., April 26 .- (Special.)-A frightful accident took place at Elk Bay, 100 miles up the coast, yesterday afternoon. The Il-year-old son of David Essence, a logger, was sent with a 12pound can of gunpowder to their house. about 100 yards from the shore. He went c the kitchen and amused himself for a few moments by placing spoonfuls of the powder on the stove and watching it tlash. Then he took off the lid and began pouring the powder in the stove. The whole tin exploded. The boy was thrown 'n some distance from the house, which was completely wrecked. The stove and tragments of the house were found hundreds of feet away. The boy was horrib ly burned, but was still living when brought to this city tonight. It is understood that the C. P. R. today handed to the provincial government a cheque for $22,000 in settlement of the claim in connection with the recently eized timber on the Crow's Nest line. Hewitt Bostock, M. P., who arrived today from Ottawa, expressed surprise at Premier Martin having so few candidates in the field in the interior. He says that Martin in going up against the Laurier government on the Japanese question, cannot result in anything but the making of much trouble.
