RECRUITING RALLY LAST NIGHT.

Another recruiting rally was held last night and was largely attended. Squads of Volunteers and Naval Reservists paraded Water Street with a bugle corps at their head and the men at intervals sung patriotic songs. The procession wended its way to the British Hall, where the gathering was addressed by Lieut. Cyril Carter and Mr. W. R. Howley, K.C. Lieut. Carter, the veteran, who is permanently crippled owing to his devotion to the cause made a stirring address and related his experiences with Ours in graphic style, ending with a powerful appeal for more men to fill the place of our fallen heroes.

Mr. Howley extolled the patriotism and gallantry of Lieut. Carter and men like him and last made an appeal to elegibles to enlist. There were not at all sufficient men showing up and too many cannot enlist. We can and will win but we must have men and still more men to do so and he appealed to the women folk also to influence brothers, sons or sweethearts to enlist. Another meeting will be held to
