

CITY TEMPLE SERVICES ARE FALLING OFF

No Successor Yet Chosen to Rev. R. J. Campbell.

LATTER TO MAKE STATEMENT

Will Tell Why He Left Non-conformity for Establishment.

London, June 12.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Opinion as to the choice of a successor to the Rev. R. J. Campbell as pastor of the City Temple appears to be about equally divided among the members of the congregation between Dr. J. H. Jowett, of New York, and Dr. Joseph Font Newton of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. The deacons have recommended Dr. Jowett. Dr. Newton is to preach at the Temple during the month of July.

Whoever is chosen will be warmly welcomed, both as a mark of gratification at the pulpit filled once more and because of the final breaking of the protracted deadlock as to a successor to Mr. Campbell.

Since the latter's departure congregations have fallen off by 80 per cent. and the famous Thursday midday service has been abandoned.

Meanwhile genuine interest has been aroused in ecclesiastical circles throughout the country by Mr. Campbell's announcement that he will state his reasons for leaving non-conformity to re-enter the Church of England.

Since re-entering the Church of England he has privately and publicly refused to be drawn into any sort of statement of his reasons for so doing. In maintaining silence he has given as a reason his reluctance to provoke acute difference of opinion.

It was a recent episode at a session of the Congregational Union which prompted Mr. Campbell's determination to make a statement. The subject of the validity of the Congregational ministry was under discussion and Dr. J. D. Jones, now the recognized leader of British Congregationalism, suggested that Mr. Campbell's action had been construed as a reflection upon the status of Congregational ministries.

At the same time he hinted to Mr. Campbell that it was expected of him to affirm Church and submitting to ordination did not imply any doubt as to the validity of his former Congregational orders.

Mr. Campbell forthwith announced his intention to issue an explanation.

TURKISH OFFICIAL

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Constantinople, June 12.—Via London.—The Turkish war office to-day issued the following statement:

"Trak front.—On May 29 Turkish calendar, we sank two gunboats and three large boats loaded with ammunition, set fire to four other boats and destroyed four large munition depots on the banks of the River by artillery fire. A camp of the enemy was destroyed.

"In an encounter with the enemy in the region of Schindman we annihilated a cavalry force, numbering 1,000. We captured great quantities of cattle, telephone and bridge building materials, rifles and ammunition.

"Caucasian front.—There is no change.

"Several places on the Asia Minor coast were bombarded by hostile ships which did no damage."

Lieutenant Richard Sauley, navy aviator, was killed at Pensacola, Fla., when the hydro-aeroplane fell on Santa Rosa Island. Sauley held a world's altitude record for hydro-aeroplane flight made last March, when he ascended to 16,072 feet.

CANADIAN ZOO

(1) Specimens of Banff Buffalo. (2) Three Good Fellows. (3) A Banff Polar Bear.

In the Canadian Zoo at Banff, Alberta, within the Rocky Mountains Park and along the C.P.R., both at the animal paddock about two miles east of the town, there are fine specimens of buffalo, moose, elk, deer, Persian sheep, Angora goats, bears, wolves, coyotes, lynx, badgers, martens, and a number of the smaller animals.

Six yak, originally presented to the Dominion Government by the Duke of Bedford, were tendered by the former to the Rocky Mountains Park. They were brought to Banff from the experimental farm at Brandon, and are now in a healthy and flourishing condition. Their quaint appearance, causing them to be objects of much interest. The park commissioner suggests that it would be an interesting experiment to attempt to cross one of the buffalo bulls with one of the yak cows.

In the Zoo, adjacent to the museum, may be seen the following animals of the Rocky Mountains:

Black bears, cinnamon bears, grizzly bears, red foxes, kit foxes, timber wolves, coyotes, lynx, American panther (or mountain lion), badgers, pine martens, porcupines, mountain gopher, albino gophers, marmots, fox squirrels, black squirrels, Canada geese, hawks, golden eagles, black-headed eagles, owls, pelican.

The following animals, from distant parts of the world, may be seen in the Zoo:

Kingtail monkey, rhinos, monkeys, polar bear, raccoons, orange squirrel, silver pheasants, golden pheasants, Amherst pheasants, reeves pheasants, common pheasants, pea fowls.

Enemy's Losses Heavier Than British Losses, Says Jellicoe to His Sailors

In a Message to the Men of the Fleet He Gives His Thanks to Them for the Worthy and Valiant Manner in Which They Upheld the Traditions of the Navy.

London, June 13.—In a message to the men of the British fleet, which was given out here officially last night, Admiral Jellicoe expressed appreciation of the manner in which the ships of the fleet had fought during the Jutland sea fight of May 31.

"At this stage, when full information is unavailable," said the admiral, "it is impossible to enter into details, but quite sufficient is known for me to state definitely that the glorious traditions handed down to us by generations of gallant seamen were most worthily upheld.

"Weather conditions that were highly unfavorable robbed the fleet of the complete victory expected by all ranks. Our losses were heavy.

We miss many most gallant comrades. But although it is difficult to obtain accurate information as to the enemy's losses, I have no doubt we shall find they certainly were not less than our own. Sufficient information already has been received for me to make that statement with confidence.

"I hope to give the fleet fuller information on this point at an early date. I do not wish to delay the criticism of the work of the fleet and my confidence in a complete victory.

"The wonderful spirit and fortitude of the wounded fills me with the greatest admiration. It is more proud than ever of the honor of commanders of a fleet manned by such officers and men."

ORIENTAL MARKET

United States and Japan Bidding For What Germany Has Lost.

Medan, Sumatra, Dutch East Indies, June 10.—Both Americans and Japanese are endeavoring to obtain Germany's former Far Eastern markets.

Before the war many Japanese dealers on this coast were at the verge of bankruptcy. They have since obtained capital from friends at Singapore and have developed wholesale and retail trade. They have achieved much success in dealing in such articles as cement and beer.

American articles are now to be found in every European store—including shoes, socks, any cotton goods. They are dearer than the European, but their quality is regarded highly and there is a good sale.

John Tolbet Long, 88, the oldest retired postmaster in the United States, both in point of years and in point of service, is dead at his home in Frankford, Del.

Captain Erick Murrell, whose rescue of 733 passengers and crew of the steamer Denmark in 1880 was the subject of the famous painting by the English artist, Remy, and Every Soul Was Saved, died in Baltimore on Saturday.

STERN BATTLE AGAINST UNION

Struggle Begins at General Assembly in Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, June 13.—The militant spirit of Presbyterianism was on exhibition in Winnipeg yesterday, when 600 commissioners of the General Assembly began the consideration of church union. Probably 2,000 adherents of other churches occupied seats in the auditorium to witness the great Church drama. One outstanding factor of the situation which impresses even the casual observer is the stalwart, uncompromising forces arrayed against what they term the "organized effort to destroy Presbyterianism."

Daily the opposition commissioners have held secret sessions since the assembly convened, and yesterday morning Captain C. N. Mitchell, the veteran anti-unionist of Winnipeg, was on guard at the committee-room of the minority, admitting none but known adherents to Presbyterianism as it is to-day. As the debate was being adjourned yesterday afternoon, Dr. Brown, of Red Deer, Alberta, jumped to his feet and proclaimed in a ringing voice: "All those who favor preserving the Presbyterian Church will meet in committee at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning."

This defiant note followed three hours of initial debate, in which both sides displayed a high order of oratory and the adherents of each side greeted points by their partisans with repeated hand-clapping. Many "noes" and "amens" resounded through the house as the speakers concluded well-rounded periods.

Responsibility for the collision on the Third avenue elevated, New York, in which one man was killed, was placed upon the shoulders of Frank Kerigan, the dead motorman of one of the wrecked trains, by representatives of the road.

HOUSE OF GRENFELL HAS SUFFERED MUCH IN THE GREAT WAR

Lord Desborough Has Lost Both of His Older Sons.

Few houses of the English peerage have suffered more in connection with the war than that of Grenfell, which is represented by several members in the Upper House of Parliament.

Thus, Lord Desborough, the famous athlete, who has twice swum the Niagara, has lost both of his older sons, and is now left with a fourteen-year-old boy to succeed to his honors and estates. His young kinsman, Captain Francis Grenfell, of the Ninth Lancers, the first officer of the British army to receive the Victoria Cross in the present war, for heroism on the battlefield, was killed in action in France after having been twice invalided home for wounds.

His twin brother, Capt. Riversdale Grenfell, of the same regiment, and so well known as a crack polo player, lost his life in the fighting in France around Christmas time, and from that time forth Frank Grenfell felt that he would not outlive the war.

The Grenfell twins were so intimately associated in sport, in business affairs in all their interests, in their likes and dislikes, that no one ever thought of them singly, but always as of the pair. When "Rivvy" fell in the battle of Mons it did not seem quite natural that Frank should remain behind. In fact he was so convinced himself that he was destined to rejoin his twin brother at an early date in the Great Hereafter that on the day before he was killed he attended divine service and received communion, as a sort of Viaticum.

The cases of Frank and Rivvy Grenfell is only one of many in the present war. In all the belligerent armies there have been instances of the same kind—that is to say, if one of the twins fell the other one's death was certain to follow not long afterward. Sometimes, even, they were killed on the same day, and the Vienna newspapers record the death of an Austrian officer fighting in Poland against the Russians and of his twin brother fighting in Alsace against the French, on the same date, nay, almost at the very same hour.

Of the physical resemblance between twins everybody is aware. But the mental and moral likeness and sympathy are full of mystery, originating, as they do, in early infancy, and extending to the grave. The experiences of the present war in the matter are of a nature to still further emphasize both this mystery and the popular superstitious and folklore which exist in all countries, civilized and uncivilized, on the subject of twins.

Why You Are Asked to Vote For The Hospital By-Law!

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

In view of the fact that voting will take place on Monday, June 26th, in connection with a by-law authorizing the sum of $58,000 for hospital purposes, the Board of Directors take this opportunity to place the facts before the public.

The need for providing increased accommodation became an imperative duty, and under a money by-law, authorized by the electors, the work was proceeded with, and the outlay, to make a complete job, exceeded the moneys available. Your Governors felt, however, that the public would not desire the needed work to be either skimped, or halted, and therefore completed the necessary improvements, secure in the knowledge of public approval.

Disbursements made up to May 31st last, and liabilities due at that date in connection with new hospital buildings and furnishings, new operating rooms and furnishings, the Nurses' Home, the acquiring of additional land, elevators, etc., etc., represented an outlay of the sum of.....$182,448

Towards this sum the receipts have been as follows:

City.....$85,000

County.....15,000

County.....1,290

W. H. A. for Nurses' Home (exclusive of payments for other things).....20,715

Sundries and bequests.....6,076

Balance due.....128,081

Required to complete buildings and equipment, etc.....10,633

Total required.....$65,000.

Of this amount the County has generously agreed to contribute the sum of.....$7,000

Contingent upon the City passing a By-law for.....58,000

$65,000

Citizens are cordially invited to visit the Hospital and to see for themselves that there has been no extravagance.

The buildings, although of an attractive appearance, are plain in design and finish, and there has not been one dollar of outlay except for value received, and in accordance with the Hospital needs of the City and County.

The cost of sinking fund and interest during each of the 20 years of the debentures will be 17.9 cents per head of population.

Trusting that this By-law will meet with the cordial support of all classes of Ratepayers.

Signed on behalf of the Board of Governors.

C. H. WATEROUS, President.
