WILL NOT RETURN ISLAND TO GERMANY

New Zealand Minister Says That His People Will Never Consent

MASSEY IN ACCORD

Hopes Flag Planted on Samoa in 1914 Will Remain

London, July 16.—Speaking at a luncheon of the British Empire League here, the Right Hon. W. F. Massey expressed the fervent hope that the flag planted on Samoa in 1914 would remain. (Cheers.) He mentioned that the most important business hitherto decided by the Imperial War Conference was that the dominions would have the opportunity of considering the terms of peace. That was a great step forward. (Cheers.)

Speaking of his visit to France, Premier Massey said that the New Zealanders had no desire to return until victory was achieved. Referring to economic matters, he stated that he would like to see the material of the Empire made into manufactured articles within the Empire.

As regarded the relations of employers to employes, he hoped that more would be done in the matter of profit-sharing.

Will Keep German Islands. The Right Hon. Sir J. G. Ward, Bart., K.C.M.G., Minister of Finance, in referring to the question of the Pacific Islands, said:

"We say plainly on behalf of the people of New Zealand, and also the people of Australia, that under no circumstances must Samoa, New Guinea and the Marshall Islands revert to Germany. (Applause.) Should any calamity befall us, the majority of our people would feel inclined to despair of the Mother Country and the bonds of the Empire would be brought to a straining point. God forbid that such a calamity should arise, but it is best to be frank. (Applause.)"

"We dislike the German methods of colonization and treatment of the native races; we dislike the German economic methods and the underhand and cut-throat devices of trade competition; we are opposed to the reappearance of German in the Pacific, because Germany's predatory instincts are a standing menace to peace and prosperity. (Applause.)"

Premier Lloyd, Newfoundlander, said that he had had the opportunity of seeing Newfoundland soldiers in England and in France, and he desired to express the gratitude and appreciation of his people to the Mother Country for the way she had looked after them. (Cheers.)

APPROVES WILSON

By Courier Leased Wire. Amsterdam, July 16.—In his reference to President Wilson's new points in his July Fourth speech Baron Burian to-day said he was able to approve of them heartily and that to a great extent "nobody would refuse homage to this genius and nobody would refuse his co-operation."

Baron Burian said none of the belligerents need ever come into the position reached by Russia and Roumania as "we ever are ready to enter into peace negotiations with all our opponents. Continuing with foreign minister said, "If our enemy continuously demand atonement for wrong done and restitution then this is a claim which we could with more justification use against them because we have been attacked and the wrong done to us must be redressed."

"We are prepared to discuss everything," said Baron Burian, "except our own territory."

THE SUBSCRIPTION

"Everything ready, Sergeant?" "All correct, Sir." "Rations." "In that sack, Sir." "Doesn't seem to be very full. Have your men got all your rations in that sack?" "Yes, Sir."

The platoon moved off in the darkness towards the line, and came after some time to the beginning of the Communication Trench. There was no moon, so they rounded "one" or two dangerous corners without mishap. Only a desultory shelling disturbed the silence, and an occasional venomous snapping of a machine gun. The relief was carried out satisfactorily, and the platoon settled down. The night passed uneventfully.

The next morning, after "stand-down" had been passed along the line, the platoon commander came round to watch the breakfast preparations. He missed the customary smell of frying bacon, and the busy terms usually proceeding the meal. Here and there he passed a man eating a hunk of bread or a thick biscuit. They seemed quite satisfied and were laughing and joking. He went for the sergeant, and asked: "What's happened, Sergeant? These chaps don't seem to be very keen of their breakfast?" "Oh, they're having it all right, Sir. No complaint."

"But—bacon? Nobody seems to be cooking anything." "Expect they'll have it later, Sir." "The officer was not satisfied with this. He looked the Sergeant straight in the eyes and saw something there. Very quietly he spoke: "Come along, Sergeant. Out with us!"

"What's that?" "Orders, Sergeant!" "Very good, Sir!" "The officer moved off, smiling. Beside the Albert road two little children sat on some rubble. Each had a face smeared with marmalade. Near them sat an old woman with a fair-sized parcel in her lap.

"Well, I'm damned. As long as they didn't give away their iron rations, I suppose it's all right. It's their look-out."

STRIKE OF SHOPMEN APPEARS IMMINENT

Offer of Canadian Railways of McAdoo Schedule Rejected

By Courier Leased Wire. Montreal, July 16.—No settlement of the wage differences between the Federated Shopmen's Brotherhood and the Canadian railways was announced this morning. According to brotherhood representatives here a strike looked inevitable this morning as the offer of the railways at Ottawa yesterday is the McAdoo schedule, which has already been emphatically refused.

The Railway War Board, which has handled the railway strikes since 1914, until two o'clock to reply to the ultimatum handed in last Friday by the shopmen, but the Railway War Board had already replied to that ultimatum on Sunday, when in a letter to Charles Dickie, secretary of the shopmen's committee, N. M. Neal, secretary of the board, announced with expressed regret that the McAdoo schedule with amendments was the best offer the companies could make to the men—and that was final. There was no further communication sent to the union men to-day.

"We have said all we had to say," said Mr. Neal, secretary of the Railway Board. "If the men wish to re-open negotiations on the basis of the McAdoo amendments, we are willing to any time."

Hearing no word from the War Board, the men went to an earnest session at the Alexandra Hotel.

On this meeting depends the fate of transportation in Canada for the next few days at least.

Announcement was made to-day on behalf of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors here that these organizations had practically come to an agreement with the Canadian Pacific Railway to accept the McAdoo award. It was also stated that these two unions would not interfere in any way with the negotiations with the shopmen and the railways and any fight that afterwards might take place.

POLICE CHIEFS IN CONVENTION

Organization is Needed to Meet Many After-the-War Problems

By Courier Leased Wire. Hamilton, Ont., July 16.—Heads of police departments from all over the Dominion assembled here to-day for the three days convention of the Chief Constables Association of Canada. Addresses of welcome were delivered by Mayor Booker, R. T. Kelly, president of the Board of Trade, and Police Magistrate Jelts. The feature of the morning session was the annual report of George Rideout, chief of police of Montreal, N.B., and president of the association.

After commenting on Dominion conditions and what is doing to decrease crime, the Military Service Act and food regulations, the chief called attention to the necessity of police organizations preparing for after-war conditions. He suggested the appointment of a committee to discuss plans for meeting any contingency. While not desiring to view the outlook too seriously he pointed out that the distribution of the returned men at the close of the war was going to be a very complex problem. The older order of things would go and an entirely new system emerge. It was most essential the police should be prepared for it.

"With what, Sir?" "You know very well. Tell me all about it, please."

"The Sergeant shifted uneasily on his feet. "It's like this, Sir. You know some of our lot was away yesterday afternoon, before we came up, on a foraging up the Albert road. Well they took a good sack of rations with them."

"What on earth for?" "Well, Sir, in that village next to where we were, there was an old woman with two kids who'd had her house knocked to bits the day before by a shell. She's pretty old and feeble, and the chaps thought they'd kind of like to get up a bit of subscription for her, in the way of food, before the lorry came to take her and the kids away. Everyone gave some of his rations."

"Well, I'm damned. As long as they didn't give away their iron rations, I suppose it's all right. It's their look-out."

SENTENCES HELD UP BY HABEAS CORPUS

Objectors Will Not Know Fate Until Test Case is Heard

There has been no announcement by the Toronto military authorities as yet regarding the decisions reached at the general court-martial which was held on July 4, when seven men, most of them conscientious objectors, were tried. It is understood by officers at headquarters that the Government is withholding confirmation of the sentences until the test case dealing with habeas corpus proceedings is heard by the Supreme Court of Canada.

The Gray case, which by the way, was one of the cases tried at the general court-martial of July 4, will come up for hearing at Ottawa next Thursday, and the Department of Militia has deemed it advisable to postpone the promulgation of sentences on the accused soldiers until the point at issue has been decided.

If the order-in-council cancelling the exemptions of all men between the ages of 20 to 22 is declared to be valid by the court, thus overruling the decision of the Alberta Su-

FRENCH ENTRENCHED

By Courier Leased Wire. London, July 16.—The French this afternoon were entrenched at Prunay, behind the River Vesse, two miles back of the original line, the Evening Standard states. This, it adds, is the deepest penetration the enemy has effected in the region east of Rheims.
