

WHEN COOKING MEATS

When boiling ham, place a plate beneath it to keep it from sticking to the bottom of the kettle. Trim off the rind, rub brown sugar into the fat, and brown the ham in the oven before serving.

Save scraps of fat and skim all of the grease from the top of gravies and soups. Bring slowly to a boil and strain thru a fine wire sieve. Use for frying purposes.

Do not mix mutton or lamb fat with other fats. Melt it in a pan, and add a pinch of salt and a little boiling water to cause the sediment to settle. Strain and turn into molds. Mutton fat makes the best of cosmetics for chapped and bleeding hands.

To make a tough steak tender place it on a deep platter and sprinkle it with three table-spoons of vinegar or lemon juice and one of olive oil. Turn it several times and let it soak two or three hours before broiling.

Fried meats should not be given to our children. A child of 2 or over, should be given at least two ounces of meat, fish or poultry, except on days when an egg is eaten. It is important to teach children to chew meat thoroughly.

Broiling and roasting are the best methods of preparing tender meat for children. Tough meat should be chopped before it is broiled.

SUNDAY IN BOSTON

Billy Sunday closed his evangelistic campaign in Boston by preaching to 70,000 people in four services at his tabernacle, and, incidentally, carrying away with him a cheque for $50,000. Boston's cash gift to the evangelist brings the total of free-will offerings that he has received since conducting revivals up to approximately $600,000. The free-will offerings are clear profit for the evangelist. All expenses of the revivals including house rent and living expenses of Sunday and his party, are paid out of collections taken at every service until these expenses have been met. Collections for expenses in Boston totalled $90,436.75. Mr. Sunday preached there to 1,327,500 persons at services in the tabernacle, and his audiences at outside meetings, gatherings at homes of society leaders and trips to adjacent cities, totalled 10,000 more. At the tabernacle, previous to the closing day's meetings, 60,000 people replied to his appeal to "hit the sawdust trail." Here was Mr. Sunday's appreciation of his treatment in Boston:

Boston's batting average for God is .999. She is not behind in history or culture or hospitality, baseball or religion. She trails nobody in anything. God be with you, old scouts! Like me, you thank God that you have lived in this day and generation and that your eyes have beheld such scenes as I have witnessed here. I can understand that how Rhody and other members of the party came to think you were extremely conservative, but I have played baseball here, and I knew that if you brought one-half the enthusiasm and square deal into the campaign that you put into the game it would be all right. It has been one of the characteristics of a Boston audience to give a square deal to the visiting club."

Sunday estimates that he received two million dollars worth of free newspaper advertising during his Boston campaign.

AFTER N. S. APPLES

Mr. A. G. Turney, of Fredericton, Provincial Horticulturist, came to St. John, says the Standard to meet Inspector Vroom of Middleton, N. S. Yesterday they were engaged in making inspection of the stock of local apples which have been shipped here from Nova Scotia. There is an impression prevalent that some of the apples which come to the local market from Nova Scotia are not of the best quality. This is particularly true of the apples packed by the smaller producers in the Annapolis Valley.

Arrested on Charge of Conspiracy to Murder Lloyd George Says a London Despatch

The Daily Sketch says:—The police have unearthed what is believed to be a plot to murder the premier, with the result that Mrs. Wheelodon of Derby, Miss Hetty Wheelodon, her daughter, Mrs. Mason, another daughter, and Alf Mason, the latter's husband have been arrested. They were taken to the police station and formally charged with conspiring together to murder Mr. Lloyd George. They will be taken before the magistrate at Derby on only formal evidence will be given then, but later in the week the charges will be thoroughly investigated. The details are yet unknown, but it is understood the conspirators aimed at causing the premier's death by poison.

Derby, Jan. 31.—Mrs. Alice Wheelodon and her two daughters and the husband of one of them Alf Mason, were charged at the Guild Hall here today with conspiring to murder Premier Lloyd George and Arthur Henderson, member of the House of Commons and of the War Council.

SIR SAM WOULD APPLY MILITIA ACT

"Were I Minister of Militia again I should have no hesitation, and I'm sure I should have the backing of all Canadians, in applying the Militia Act, if we could not get enough men any other way."

This statement was made by Lieut.-General Sir Sam Hughes in an address before the junior bar of Montreal at a banquet, when he spoke on the Militia Act, as it applies to general service in recruiting. Further, Sir Sam said:

"I have no hesitation in saying it would be better to apply the Act so as to get them today. Sir Sam said there are still 800,000 single men of eligible age in the Dominion.

WIL STOP ALLOWANCES OF CANADIAN WIVES

A London despatch says that with a view to enforcing the return to Canada of the many wives dependent on Canadian soldiers who have journeyed to England, the Canadian authorities are considering the stopping of allowances of such as are not engaged definitely in war works in the Old Country, unless they so return.

NEWS PRINT CRISIS IN ENGLAND GRAVE

London.—On the principle that misery loves company, the suffering publishers in America may draw considerable comfort from the plight of their brethren in England. If white paper conditions are bad in the United States, they are almost impossible on this side. Up to last November newspapers were permitted to use 66 per cent of the quantity currency used by them in 1914. Publishers thought these conditions were pretty bad, but they were struggling along, doing the best they could, when the Government notified them that their paper allowance would be cut down to five-sixths of the 1916 quantity, which is equivalent to about 50 per cent of the 1914 quantity. Recently there has been strong talk of making a still further cut to a 40 per cent basis, as compared with 1914. The proposed action led today to a visit in force to Prime Minister, when about forty newspaper proprietors, headed by Lord Urnham of The Daily Telegraph were received at 10 Downing St. They made vigorous representations as to the necessity of newspapers to the public in war time and the necessity of white paper to the newspapers. They will receive the same consideration from the Government that would be accorded to any other industry.

Even the Government consents to preserving the present status the newspapers are faced with almost intolerable conditions. The Government restriction on paper and raw materials arise from the need of shipping tonnage for food and munitions, and they are aggravated by the growing scarcity of labor and other factors that make for high prices. Leading paper dealers tell me the market price of paper for customers today is $130 per ton, but that, as a matter of fact, a new paper starting would be unable to obtain news print at any price. I am told by newspaper managers that they are actually paying the equivalent of six cents a pound for current supplies and that they expect the situation to get worse before it gets better.

Thanks to the reserve stocks held by some of the papers, the newspapers have not yet fully accommodated themselves to the scarcity of news print and high prices. The Times has gone from two cents to three cents and given notice of a probable further increase to four cents. All one-cent papers have made drastic cuts in size and are prepared to carry the condensation still further. They do not find that the cut in size has hurt them with their readers.

There has been gossip of The Daily Mail's raising its price to two cents but it is doubtful whether that will be done in the face of the certainty that the Daily Telegraph and Morning Post will stay at their old price of two cents. When the war broke out there was a perpendicular drop in advertising revenue. There has been a gradual recovery although conditions are not yet entirely normal. The advertising outlook is encouraging, as the shops almost universally report good trade. London, streets were never so crowded as at present. Visitors from the country and the continent compete with London housewives in hunting bargains regardless of the war time.

A Sackville News item says: Miss Lillian Hart who recently accepted the position of superintendent of nurses in the Provincial Sanatorium at Kentville, Nova Scotia, leaves this morning to assume her new duties. Miss Hart's many friends will be glad to know that she has almost fully recovered from her serious illness of last year.

PREMIER CLARKE, OF NEW BRUNSWICK, RESIGNS

A Fredericton despatch says: Hon. George J. Clark has resigned as Premier of New Brunswick, stating that ill health prevents him from continuing as leader of the present administration. His Honor the Lieutenant Governor called upon Hon. James A. Murray, Minister of Agriculture, to form a new cabinet.

Hon. Mr. Clark, it is understood, will succeed Hon. Josiah Wood as Governor of New Brunswick, the latter's term expiring in March.

Completing a 400-mile trip and walking 75 miles to a railroad station in Maine in order to reach Fredericton, Aubrey Curtiss, a veteran of the Dardanelles campaign, enlisted in Fredericton Tuesday with the 236 Kiltie Battalion. Private Curtiss was working in the Maine lumber woods up to about two weeks ago when he ran across a newspaper which contained an advertisement calling for men for the 236 Battalion.
