

Toilet Requisites

We take great pleasure in our Toilet Goods Department, having always made it a practice to order anything for which there was a call. The department has consequently grown until now it is looked upon as headquarters for Perfumes, Fine Soaps, Brushes, Creams, Lotions, Powders and all sorts of Toilet Requisites.

Eloids

Camp meeting is in full tide this week with a good attendance and will continue over Sunday, 31st. Bishop R. C. Horner, the veteran of many hard fought battles and crowning victories, is in charge at the Camp Ground. Owing to recent illness he is forced to spare himself his usual supreme efforts.

We understand that Miss Doolan, of Athens, has the appointment as teacher at Eloids.

Miss Edna Henderson and Master Alvah are suffering the inconveniences of the distemper so prevalent. We wish them a speedy recovery.

Threshing has begun. Also the rainy season.

Where is the next social. It's fairly good business to attend these church outings as one gets more than he pays for in "eats," some entertainment and the satisfaction of helping the churches.

Mr. Kenneth Madill, Miss Bessie and Master Ivan were visitors at Mr. Hollingsworth's on Friday.

Miss Eva Cowle is visiting friends in Brockville.

The sermonette of last issue on the subject of "Honesty" is a tribute, at least, to the truthfulness of the Old Testament scriptures which reads "None are righteous, no not one." But probably this same scripture might establish the fact that men to-day are no worse than in olden times. The author of the sermonette allowed "there are a lot of good conscientious souls." So it is consoling to know on such good authority that the former days are not better than these.

The L.T.L. will meet at the home of Miss Auguste Purcell next Friday evening.

Mr. Bert Holde has recovered from his recent illness sufficiently to resume his duties.

Mrs. Rachel Berney has returned from visiting friends in Ottawa.

Mr. Edward Davis and sister, Miss Davis, of Syracuse, N.Y., were Sunday visitors at Mr. Jas. Moore's.

Bonnycastle Dale, the well known Canadian naturalist, is the author of the leading article in ROD AND GUN IN CANADA for August, it is entitled "Salmon Fishing at Campbell River." The wondrous beauty of the Campbell River Falls is to be seen in the page photo-engraving that accompanies the article. Other articles and stories of note are: "Tahar The Turtle," by A. O. Philipp; "Rideau and Trent Canals," by L. Sherwood; "The Beverley and Newboro' Lakes," by Tyeth Bounsall, and "The Summer Call to the Northland," by Walter Thornton. An illustrated account of the 1918 Tournament of the N. S. Guides also appears in this splendid issue, along with the usual high grade Guns and Ammunition, Fishing, Kennel and Conservation Department. Canada's premier outing monthly is published by W. J. Taylor, Limited, at Woodstock, Ont.

COMMUNITY GATHERING.

Believing that others as well as myself have often envied what was the mystical something that rendered so enjoyable the friendly gathering at "Loretta Lodge" on the 14th inst. And not only so enjoyable but also so apparently indescribable that none seem fully capable of giving in detail the pleasing event, for to describe the bountifully laden festive board which all so much enjoyed would yet come far short, or that the day was all that could be desired or yet because the lake was beautiful and calm as the motor boats sped around and among the islands in their unusual greenness, but chiefly, we believe, because as neighbors met together and they with old time friends and acquaintances, the very atmosphere seemed fraught with the spirit of the angelic message which brought gladness to the earth so long ago and still breathes peace on earth and good will towards men. "Best be the tie that binds Our souls in Christian love, The fellowship of kindred minds Is like a thing above." —E.R.

NOTICE

August 11th, 1919.

Mr. Harold Moorehouse,
Glen Buell

Dear Sir,—As you had a part in the agreement that took place between Leslie and myself last spring, I would like you to convey this message to him as he does not read. Leslie is doing nothing. I had to let the hay out; I gave him every chance to cut it, put the hay fork in order, got him an extra horse to rake and offered to hire him a man to help draw in. Now his grain is lying on the ground going to destruction, has been so for a week. Seymour's pigs and cows are running through it all the time. Now I refuse to be responsible for the wintering of the stock, so if it belongs to him I want him to look after it. The fences and gaps are all down and the cattle have no place to graze. There are several cows and two horses here that belong to somebody, I don't know who, but you will oblige me by giving this message to Abe Bonsteel.

Yours respectfully,

M. A. Bonsteel,
Athens, Ont.
