3 IN ONE FAMILY IN TRUE BILL CURED OF SKIN DISEASE BY

Rumor That Things We "Fixed" in Emerson Libel

Judge Did Not Appear To Think Evidence Was Against Corckett

Fredericton, N. B., June 19.—The first day of the Crockett-Emmerson criminal libel case has left everybody up in the air. Gossip is rampant. Is there a deal? Is a settlement on the tapis? Is something being fixed up? James H. Crockett, the defendant, most emphatically sava ing fixed up? James H. Urockett as defendant, most emphatically says "No." He demands a full trial and wants it immediately. As an earnest of his good faith he has here num-erous witnesses. Among these are John Lloyd, ex-night clerk of St. Law-rence Hall; Harry Dean, ex-night-watchman; James Chapman, ex-night-rocket.

The "missing witness" from Hamilton, John T. Parker, manager of the more or less famous Albion Hotel, Montreal; Detective Skeffington, formerly with the I. C. R., and several ladies and gentlemen from Moncton. N. B., and the city of Quebec, who will testify as to the reputation of the feminine parties in the case.

Hon. Mr. Emmerson is here, buoyant in spirits and looking well. Personally he denies all knowledge of the overtures for compromise made in his behalf. It is reported, however, that Hon. Mr. Pugsley has made the suggestion to the defendant's counsel that the prosecution would drop the gestion to the defendant's counsel that the prosecution would drop the case with the understanding that Mr. Crockett had some justification for publishing the alleged libelous article if the defence would withdraw the contention that the ladies mentioned were of ill-repute. This proposition was turned down.

There'll Be Delay.

The talk about compromise received a fillip yesterday afternoon after the grand jury had returned the indictment.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley and J. D. Hazen,
K. C., respectively leaders in provincial politics, and opposing counsel in this case, retired for consultation. When they emerged Mr. Pugsley stated that he would not press

CURED OF SKIN DISEASE BY ZAM-BUK.

Once more Zam-Buk, the great herbal balm, has been proved vastly superior to ordinary remedies, and has sured where other preparations had signally failed. Three children in one family have been healed by it. This not only shows the powar of Zam-Buk, but goes to prove how beneficial its pure herbal ingredients are to the delicate skin of children.

Mr. J. C. Bates, of Burk's Fulls, reports the case referred to. He says: "My three children were all bloken out with sores on face, hands and feet. Their condition was pitiable, and although I tried various ointments and salves, they did. not seem to be able to get at the coot of the evil, and the sores continued to spread. One day I saw a report in a local newspaper telling how beneficial Zam-Buk was for skin diseases, ulcers, etc. I got a supply of the bulm and applied it to the children's sores. Almost immediately they got relief, and the sores began to beal. Although the skin disease had deficial all the salves I had previously tried, in one week Zam-Buk overcame the trouble, and to-day the children have not a pimple or spot or mark of disease on their skin. For this grandrevult I have Zam-Buk to thank. It is a splendid healer."

The defence will put a series of formal impeachwill put a series of formal impeachment questions to him and then the prosecution will take him for his redirect examination. There are several points relative to the Steunenberg murder and the alleged conspiracy behind it that were not developed last week, and these the state will bring out.

Counsel for the state had an extended conference yesterday afternoon as to the concluding moves in their case. The conference was entirely re-as to the concluding moves in their case. The conference was entirely relative to the course to be pursued toward Steve Adams. The decision as to Adams was not final, but it was tentatively agreed to call him as a witness for the state, and to leave him for the defence if it sees fit to make him a witness. Adams stands by the repudiation of the confession which he made to Detective McPartland, and there his connection with the case other than in the use of his name, rests for the present.

The letter follows:

"Friend Tom,-Your letter received. That was sent to Jack Dec. 21 for you. He should send it so that you ought to have it by this time. Will not write any more this time. Wire me as soon as you get to your new field."

The letter was postmarked at Denver in December, 1905, the day that Steunenberg was killed, and it is said by the state that the Jack mentioned was Simpkins, and the "that" referred to was $100, which Orchard swore he asked Simpkins to get for him when Simpkins left Caldwell.

The state developed its contention that, as tending to show a conspiracy and knowledge of the Steunenberg crime, Orchard was, without any request on his part, furnished with counsel within a few days after his arrest.

The defence examined Orchard on

The defence examined Orchard on this subject, and largely devoted itself to showing that the Western Federation of Miners always provided counsel for its members whenever and wherever they got into trouble.

To combat the theory that Orchard killed Steunenberg in revenge for his loss of a valuable interest in the Hercules Mines, the state on re-direct gramination obtained from Orchard a declaration that he sold his interest in the Hercules in 1897, two years before the strike began and troops came.
