MOPLES' PAPER

Published during the afternoon of ach day, except Sunday, by The News Publishing Company, Limited, at its office in the McKenzie Block, Ninth treet, Brandon, Manitoba

TELEPHONE CALLS ing Director....

tion rates, $3.00 per annun dvertising rates furnished upon ar

ULY 2, 1913.

DAY DOMIN

ninion holiday to cele ndreds of the citizens of Brandon by the manner in which the day was spent.

The few flags that floated proudly over our public buildings would, in themselves convey no hint. Neither the fact that full advantage was taken of the day to right forded any enlightenment. It may be said that every loyal Canadian the more glorious facts in Canadian obligation. history. The greater proportion of the

that the great lesson of yesterday's cele- Science Monitor. bration was allowed to go untaught. This would not apply to this city, we believe, than to any other city in Canada though despite this obvious neglect, we are not diposed to question the patriotism of our fellow Canadians, as "Evil is wrought through want of thought as well as want of heart, as the immortal Tom

In the same connection it will be intersting to note at some length the following

World accuses us of a desire to inflict ale and one cigar. esses by long-winded leaders of thought on the helpless children of Canada This is a heavy charge, and we cannot it be to place notices in the different city plead guilty. If we said anything like that it was an error of the peneil, not of under the age of 20 years be not allowed her temperature according to Marion's the history of races has often worked the heart.

celebrate our national anniversary in any manner, either by speeches, foreworks, processions, or other things. Possibly these things are not essential to and also for the regular the C.P.R. should said Agnes in a loud whisper at her sister's substitute for public worship. patriotism. Yet the Imperialists, who either have more than one window open ear. Agnes spoke as if somebody for are pretty shrewd fellows, attach great for the issue of tickets, or see that their malicious purposes of his own had put importance to the celebration of Empire ticket clerk is a little more rapid on his her into the river, soaked her, driven her Day, on which the school children are job. told of the glories of every part of Canada and the Empire. Orangemen, who are also good politicians, and understand the see our stalwart defenders lined up at a sisted their evil efforts and put her faith in Higher Powers. She therefore dressed beyond the visible; his voice in repeating ing headaches. They were torture to me paid to Canada is the anniversary of St camp, and not to its being taken in. It let her have some in the dining-room when came a clear, sonorous whisper, penetrat-

"In the great parade of the St. Jean Baptiste Society which passed through the streets of Ottawa yesterday were noticed the other afternoon scrutinizing a little cross on Sunday at breakfast many floats recalling historical charac- a board bearing the legend, "Notice to Moult and Colebeck between them had ters and incidents of interest to all Can- Dogs," at the south side of Stanley park, made Sunday a 'heavy day,' so Agnes except by special invitation. She could adians. The history of Canada contains and corner of Fifteenth and Lorne. Whe took the opportunity of remarking that not 'run in' and see what Sir Theodore was no more glorious chapters than those which ther his owner would be fined $25 or Sunday had grown more interesting lately doing, and advise him (delicately) to do tell of the deeds of Frenchmen in North whether it would come out of his own pock- since Lady Theodora St. Michael had something else. So having nothing to and exploration, and later in the work so he would not take any chances on that able to eat plentifully of the food before hat on, and walked down the road to of securing for this country a system of short-cut to Princess avenue. He went her, and when it was eaten, she went New House. How provoking! her uncle government and a union which would best round! provide for the happiness and growth of the Canadian people under the British

"The failure to celebrate the Canadian anniversary is not due to any consideration for helpless childhood. It is due rather to an exaggerated humility, which distinctively Canadian achievement.

"Our neighbors are said to go to extremes in celebrating the Fourth of July and there is now a movement for a "sane Fourth." We do not believe in blowing hildren's heads off with fireworks or boring them to death with long speeches. Butit would be pleasant to have something to remind us occasionally that we have a country of our own.

LOBBYING JUSTIFICD

Current discussion of the lobby as an adjunct of national and state legislative bodies often misses a distinction that is not only technical but essential, the difference between the paid agents of inter- 1893-Dedication of the New York Stat ests and the men and women who visit hat interest them unselfishly. To the harge that there is pressure upon the nembers by the professional promoters of legislation there comes the report that men in high official position and private tizens are equally active in the pers peal. If there is a possibility that the public fails to reglize that the approach to the lawmaker is in the one case to se sure his aid for a special interest and i he other an effort to enlist him on the rounds of duty, then there is need of the

An extreme ideal would throw are he legislatures the protection that st ounds couris and juries. It would lin he information and the counsel that com to them to the channels of public hearing and the reports of committees. It workers shelter them from the newspa to lead to the real and the sole justifica tion of the lobby, the enlightenment of the legislators to a degree that they would fail to obtain in exclusion.

If lobbies were an unmixed evil, or i they were of greater harm than good their continuance would be impossible royally observe it as a public holiday af- Legislatures would long ago have done away with them. But the free intercours between the makers of laws and those for is too well acquainted with the great fact whom they are made is an established and in the history of his land to have the story recognized, need. What has been under annually re-told. But, however well taken is the restraint within an obvious informed the average adult citizen may propriety, that the influence shall not be be, and the better informed he is, the read-made personal and that it shall leave ier will he be to admit that new-comers the member in his final action unhamp to this land should also be informed of ered and controlled only by his primary

Regarding the legislator as an agent, he newest of new-comers will one day be cannot well be denied communication with proud to call themselves Canadians. It the principal, but the general public s the patriotic Canadian of today that which he also serves, has its right that the will make the patriotic Canadian of to-communication be in open view. The corrective power of fu'l publicity is com-It is under these considerations that ing to full appreciation in the present we are compelled to reluctantly admit tendency, and it has no limits,-Christian

NOTES BY THE WAY

It was not only the street cars that were full last night.

One had to go out of Brandon yesterday to realize that it was Dominion Day,

The city authorities evidently read the papers. The pile of broken milk bottles nd up of a pleasant little discussion by on Fourtenth street has disappeared. ocienate * * * tempera

parks that from now on "male bipeds

On occasions like yesterday afternoon when there is a rush for an excursion train haven't got any. I knew I shouldn't, be satisfied with a public lecture as a hear more about the Boyne than the St. bread and cheese and beer!

rew's Day, St. Patrick's Day, St. David's intoxicants of any kind would be allowed She meant to have a good time and to eat Divine Son, that in the poorest fragments Day, and St. George's Day. The only at Sewell camp. It seems that this order an ice between every dance after the first of what we call the Material Universe, ay on which any particular attention is only applies to the selling of liquor in two, and she would get the servants to God is incarnate, only then his voice be-Jean Baptiste. The Ottawa Journa. I is ever thus! Every law that is made has the people were going away, if there were ing to the very depth of the hushed con-et did not seem very clear to Mr. Doggie, come on the scenes. After that she felt do between tea and evensong she put her

"THIS DATE IN HISTORY" July 2

1775-Washington arrived at Cambridge to take command of the continental

in Philadelphia. 1800-British parliament passed the act

1850-Sir Robert Peel.British statesman died. Born February 5, 1788. 1863-Second day of the battle of Gettys-for the Federals under General 1870-Illinois adopted a new constitu-

Charles Guiteau. Monument at Gettysburg.

"THIS IS MY 10TH BIRTHDAY" Crown Prince of Norway

Crown Prince Olav, heir apparent t ne Norwegian thrane, was born July 2, 903. Though he will some day be king Norway, the little prince is a Norwe s parents of Norwegian birth, for hi ather, King Haakon VII., was a Danis rince, while his mother, Queen Mau s an English Princess. In 1905, it will lemembered, Norway declared its ind g the throne he tok the name of Haak I. He is the second son of the lat-ng Frederick of Denmark, was born in 72, and in 1896 married Princes Maud gamer or King Edward of England ince Olav is the only child of the roya

Sir Charles Tupper, forme William Le Queux, noted st, 49 years old today.

Col. Charles Chaille-Long, soldier, dip omat and explorer, 71 years old today. Charles G. Edwards, representative in Congress of the First district of Georgia 35 years old today.

Hubert D. Stephens, representative Congress of the Second district of Missis sippi, 38 years old today.

MAN AND CASSOCI

An Enthralling Romance

By Mrs. DAVID G. RITCHIE

(CHAPTER XVII.—Con.)

Marion was not present. The Bible and box were now unspeakably precious to her and had no rival in her affections at any moment, for it is so much more easy to be in perfect harmony with the dead that with the living. It was not her faul that the Bible and box would gradually move towards the center of the drawer kerchiefs, unmended gloves, broken knive and pencils, pieces of slate, and dead He was more interested in the objective flowers. flowers.

Agnes had vague suspicions, that she half-closed eyes the behaviour of his choir never told to anybody (except as a secret boys. Nothing ever escaped him. He to two schoolfellows), that Marion's mother and her own mother had died its first budding freshness, and this was a prematurely because they had had to charactertsistic that recommended him mend their own clothes. Agnes had ir to Agnes.

after the otter-hunt, Agnes had wakened in the parks unless led on a chain or under directions. Having done this, she put on her dressing-gown and went into her sister's room. Marion was asleep. Tve taken my temperature and

It must be gratifying to some people to and she on the other hand had nobly re- his dark, reverent head bowed; his face ssions, flags, bands of music, and school girls, and swilling pop. So much with an air of triumph over her enemies the prayers failed almost for huskiness. speeches on the Twelfth of July. We better for men than good wholesome and the re-establishment of her honor. Once he leaned his hands upon the altar No wickedness on earth should do her out as if he were physically exhausted. Only of that dance tomorrow. Her uncle had when he came to the supreme act of wor-Then there are banquets on St. An- Col. Sam Hughes ordained that no invited her, though she was not 'out.' ship, pronouncing in the name of the

> Meanwhile there was Sunday with all An intelligent looking collie dog was its interests. The Rector was always burg, resulting in a partial victory always got creased and rumpled.

What a crowd of people were coming all, too pale; and of course, Uncle William 1878—Daniel Sturgeon, U.S. senator from How idiotic! And she had no flaring ed till the body was raised and ready to Pennsylvania, 1839-51, died in finery on. Lady Theodora must have told receive it again. Uniontown, Pa. Born October her she mustn't, that it was wrong to President Garfield fatally shot by had the right to wear "table centers" on hams' carriage and the Parachutes walkense to walk to church with Mrs. Neuf told that the apostles hadn't really wornhalos, she would have considered hersel stified in calling them 'rotters.' If the ible were not miraculously inspired gnes would have considered the whole

Marion had not interfered with an otions her sister had gathered from par-ntal sources, confident that a confused and unintelligent Christianity would pronote happiness better than would a con sed and untelligent Agnosticism.

Agnes saw her father go into the vestry nd snatching up her prayer-book an eizing her sunshade, she hurried into hurch. It was very pleasant to feel the rowd of faces round her; the air breathed f people, the church was full to the open

The organ (bought at a great price and aid for by Moult) was uttering in a fine oft undertone, for the clergy and choi were already in their places. Agni ad never known before that Lady Theo ora (Sir Theodore, as she supposed shught to call him in church) had cold on his cheeks, or rather on his cheek-bones He was the celebrant, assisted by Herbert Agnes liked Herbert. She knew that the village esteemed her father most, because his family had been in the county for generations; she knew that they looked upor Sir Theodore as a very generous and learned man, but he did not belong to 'these parts.' Colebeck being related to New House had his claims upon them, and besides this, he was admired by the village boys. Colebeck went into the Rectory one afternoon a week to look at the Guardian for five minutes, but his own weekly reading (except for devotions) did not rise higher than the Daily Mail. and generally fell below it. He much preferred 'pictures' to letterpress, and he studied all the advertisements. He had Isn't it just like our cat?' added Agnes no dislike to the drunken man; he willingly sought his company, in order to argue with him. He wrestled with them much in the the wall.' same way as he had met his opponents in the football field at Oxford, grasping at their sins, wrenching them from them, and hurling them out of reach. He never found these conflicts exhausting to his spirits; even a scolding woman did not and get tangled with hair-ribbons, hand ruffle his oily serenity. Unless preaching himself he never listened to a sermon revocably made up her mind not to marry The service had begun. Agnes could On the particular Sunday morning Unity of Human feeling in the uttered worship in that little church, because A tip to the parks board: How would early, and after thinking over the griev- there was within her a religious instinct ances of her life, and pulling up the poor enough perhaps, but distinct from blinds to let the sunshine in, had taken all her other instincts. This instinct in against the ethical instinct; but however deeply, in the progress of Humanity, it may ally itself with ethical thought and feeling, the religious instinct will scarcely knew the gossip of the country round in

The brilliant sunshine of that Augus morning fell through the stained windows. streaking the cold chancel pavement home, and had tried to make her tempera- deeply with blues and reds. It fell over (CHAPTER XVIII.

Agnes was never allowed to go to Priory out into the garden to gather flowers. was out, with Mrs. Neufmarche, of course, After she had selected the best for Marion It was a new idea to her that so old a man to wear, and had kept the second best could be attracted by anybody or anyfor herself, she went upstairs to dress, thing. She used to think that people of It was a special occasion, of course, be-cause of the new organ. There would be souls had become leathery and shrunken more people than usual. Out of the win- from the air that had once filled them out, dow she could see people arriving—the gradually oozing away as time went on forbids us to take a sinful pride in any 1778—Seventh Continental Congress met Tophams. Mrs. Topham in a mauve and the cases thickening. Once when voile costume suggested a monster artifi- Marion had told her that 'souls' were not cial flower invented by the soulless auda- 'things,' she had answered, 'No, I know for the union of Great Britain and city of a French milliner. There were the they aren't, of course, but they must be Ireland.

Parachutes, all looking lean, neat and somewhere, because even air, if it isn't athletic, except Ursula, in whom the soul somewhere, can't be anywhere,' and of athleticism had vanished, or rather had Marion very unkindly burst out laughing. never been, and her clothes knew it, and After this Agnes had dropped the idea that there was a case or a bag to hold the air that the soul was made of, and she 'Here is Mrs. Neufmarche,' said Agnes to pictured the soul as a rounded piece of herself scornfully. 'Not so handsome after air without any walls, that at death left the body and went up somewhere and wait

What was Agnes to do? Everybody was show vanity in church, that only the priest at the Priory. She had seen the Toptheir backs, while the people looking on ing to the Priory just before Marion called ought to be as plain as possible.' Where her in to tea. She went home and linger was Dr. Connington? He had too much ed in the little drive by the gate, hoping to Jersey, nominated for president on the 46th ballot in the Democratic national convention at Baltimore. He wasn't churchy—that was the only thing wrong with him. Agnes' faith was fully rewarded. All kinds of exciting of the type that is better left undisturbed things happened. The Tophams, Mr. and waved their hands, at least Gwenny lid, and nodded her head several times ignificantly; and almost immediately ifterward Mrs. Parachute, Lena, and Ursula came by, walking, and stopped for two minutes. Lena and Ursula lingering for a moment behind the others to men-tion it. Ursula was silent as usual, and what was unusual, she looked depressed. She had come over with her mother, urged by a strange, secret desire to see Dr. Condington. The phlegmatic nature had been stirred by the magnetism of his personality the day before. Dr. Connington had not been at the Priory and Ursula was trailing home again, for once in her life agitated by an emotion—disappointment.

No sooner were they out of sight when The afternoon was full of surprises. "Ello, 'ello, 'ello!' called out Agnes from her gate. Her pleasure was so great that she pened the gate only wide enough for him to squeeze through sideways.

'Everybody has passed except you, and now you've passed,' said Agnes, slamming the gate to, and taking his arm. 'Who do you mean by everybody?' he asked, walking up the path with her. 'Why, all the animals that have been calling at the Priory,' she said.

'Oh, there's been a menagerie there. then,' said Connington. 'Why, haven't you seen them?' asked

Agnes in surprise. 'No: I've been away all day till now

I had to lunch at Dunnbury.' 'I saw you weren't in church, but then you never are! Well, Lena says she doesnot care about Mrs. Neufmarche, Mrs. Neufmarche takes no notice of anybody but men, and talked hard all the time to Uncle William and Herbert and Mr Topham, as if there wasn't anybody else squeezing his arm. 'Our Minnie won' have any female cats in the garden except him; disobedient boys always attracted herself; she won't even let them look over

(To be Continued)

NORWAY TO LIMIT LICENSES

Christiania, Norway, July 2.-The protocol committee of the Storting has recommended the adoption of measures for limiting the general license for selling liquor on steamers.

AMERICAN GIRL WEDS IN BERLIN

Berlin, July 2.—The wedding of Miss Gladys Chandler Baker, of Providence, number of other relatives were present at the ceremony.

Blinding Headaches From Catarrhal Irritation Now Ouickly Cured

The New Inhaler Breathing Treatment Does Away With All This Sort of Thing.

"A stuffy cold in the head, or an oldture rise so as to rejoice in her suffering. Moult's robes as he stood before the altar, ancient history to me nowadays," writes on damp days when my Catarrh was bad. I would still perhaps be suffering but for the fact that I saw a friend inhaling Catarrhozone with apparent pleasure, and I got the dollar outfit in the Windsor Hotel Pharmacy in Montreal. I could scarcely believe the way Catarrhozone cleared out my head. It let me breathe vestige of Catarrh from my system. My breath used to be rank-now it is sweet. My digestion was constantly disordered, but since the catarrh is cured I have no stomach trouble. I am perfectly well and Catarrhozone did it all."

For speakers and singers and persons troubled with an irritable throat, bronchitis, asthma, catarri or la grippe Catarrhozone is of inestimable value. The inhaler can be carried in your pock et and may be used at any time or at any

Large size, guaranteed, and sufficien for 2 month's use, costs $1; smaller size 50c; sample size, 25c; all storekeepers and druggists or The Catarrhozone Co., Buf-

Canadian Industrial Exhibition WINNIPEG July 8-16, 1913

From BRANDON. $4 for round trip Tickets on sale July 5th to 15th inclusive, final return limit July 19th.

Correspondingly reduced fares from other points. Tickets and all information from any agent, or write.

J. A. McDONALD, District Passenger Agent, Brandon, Man

IMPERIAL BANK OF CANADA

Head Office, Toronto D. R. Wilkie, Gen.-Mgr. AUTHORIZED CAPITAL CAPITAL PAID UP - - - 6,788,169.17
RESERVE FUND - - 7,000,000.00 Savings Bank Department Interest allowed on deposits of $1.00 and upwards from date of Letters of Credit issued, payable in all parts of the world,

The Brandon Machine and Implement Works

PHONE 147, BRANDON

Grey Iron and Brass Castings. Iron and Steel Forgings

GENERAL REPAIR WORK A SPECIALT

Also manufacturers of Land Packers, Portable Grain Elevators Furnaces, Trip Hammers, Flag Poles, Etc., Etc.

USE BRANDON DAILY NEWS WANT ADS.

LOOKING FOR ROOMS IS QUITE A TIRESOME PROPOSI-TION. IT CONSISTS MAINLY OF TRAMPING UP ONE STREET AND DOWN ANOTHER, IN SEARCH OF A SUITABLE AND SAT-ISFACTORY PLACE TO LIVE.

WHY NOT SAVE ALL THIS UNNECESSARY TIME AND WASTE OF ENERGY BY ADVERTISING YOUR WANTS IN THE CLASSIFIED COLUMNS OF THE NEWS-THE PAPER THAT REACHES EVERY HOME IN BRANDON. YOU WILL FIND THAT ROOM OR BOARDING HOUSE QUICKER AND EASIER BY PHONING A WANT AD TO

THE BRANDON DAILY NEWS The Paper that Reaches the Homes

TELEPHONE 463

THE "BRANDON EXPRESS" Daily 8:00 a.m......Lv....Brandon....Ar.......10:35 p.m. Equipment-Observation Parlor Car with Cafe Dining Car Service. Day

THE "CAPITAL CITY EXPRESS" 9:30 a.m......Lv....Brandon....Ar...........12:35 a.m. Daily 12:14 p.m. Ar. ... Portage. ... Lv. 9:40 p.m. 1:55 p.m..... Ar.... Winnipeg.... Lv... 8:00 p.m.

ndard Electric-lighted Sleepers; Dining Car Service. These trains connect in Winnipeg with Boat Trains, via the Great Lakes for Eastern Canada.

SUMMER EXCURSION FARES TO ALL POINTS EAST. Cauadian Northern Route to the East by Duluth

LONGEST LAKE TRIP Meals and Berth AT LOWEST FARES

W. STOTT, City Ticket Agent anadian Northern Station. Phone 1083

Departures From Montreal will be

White Star

Laurentic

July 8 MONTREAL and QUEBEC to LIVERPOOL MEGANTIC, July 19 TEUTONIC, July 20

CANADA, July 12 and regularly thereafter For particulars, ask any Railroad or Steamship agent or write W. M. McLEOD, 333 Main St., Winnipeg

Ask About Our Summer Tour of Four Weeks for $167.50

For Quick Results---Advertise in The Daily News