THE BILL TO PROVIDE FOR THE UNION AND GOVERNMENT OF BRITISH NORTH AMERICA.

83. Until the Legislature of Ontario or of Quebec otherwise provides, a person accepting a public office, commission, or employment, permanent or temporary, at the nomination of the Government, shall be deemed to have accepted the office, commission, or employment, and to have taken the oath of office, at and under cost.

84. Until the Legislature of Ontario or of Quebec otherwise provides, all laws which are in force in those Provinces respectively, relative to the following matters, or any of them, namely,—the qualifications and disqualifications of members of the Legislature of Ontario or of Quebec, the qualifications and disqualifications of voters, the mode of taking the vote, the powers and duties of the officers at elections, the periods during which elections may be continued, and the trial of contested elections, and the vesting of the office of member, and the vesting of the office of member in case of death, shall respectively apply to elections of members to serve in the Legislature of Ontario and of Quebec.

85. Every Legislative Assembly of Ontario and every Legislative Assembly of Quebec shall continue for four years from the day of the meeting of the first sitting of the same, unless dissolved sooner by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province; and the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province may, at any time, dissolve the same.

86. There shall be a Session of the Legislature of Ontario and that of Quebec once at least in every year, so that twelve months shall not intervene between the last sitting of the Legislature of each Province in one session.

87. The following provisions of this Act respecting the House of Commons of Canada shall extend and apply to the Legislative Assembly of Ontario and that of Quebec, in so far as they are applicable to the Province of Ontario and that of Quebec respectively, and in so far as they are not repugnant to the provisions of the Act in relation to the Province of Ontario and that of Quebec respectively.

88. The Constitution of the Legislature of Ontario and that of Quebec shall be subject to the provisions of this Act, in so far as they are applicable to the Province of Ontario and that of Quebec respectively, and in so far as they are not repugnant to the provisions of the Act in relation to the Province of Ontario and that of Quebec respectively.

89. Each of the Lieutenant-Governors of Ontario, Quebec, and Nova Scotia shall cause writs to be issued for the first election of members of the Legislature of each Province, and at such time and addressed to such persons as he may think fit, so that the first election of members of the Legislature of each Province shall be held at the same time and place, and in the same manner, as the first election of members of the House of Commons of Canada, and that the first meeting of the Legislature of each Province shall be held at the same time and place, and in the same manner, as the first meeting of the House of Commons of Canada.

90. The Governor-General shall appoint the Judges of the Superior, District, and County Courts of Ontario, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick, and the Judges of the Courts of those Provinces respectively, and the Judges of the Courts of those Provinces appointed by the Governor-General shall be selected from the bar of that Province.

91. The salaries, allowances, and pensions of the Judges of the Superior, District, and County Courts (except the Courts of Ontario, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick), and of the Admiralty Courts in cases where the Judges thereof are for the time being paid by salary, shall be fixed and provided for by the Legislature of each Province.

92. All the revenues and other moneys of the Province of Ontario, and of the Province of Quebec, and of the Province of Nova Scotia, and of the Province of New Brunswick, shall be applied to the discharge of the public debt of that Province, and to the discharge of the public debt of that Province, and to the discharge of the public debt of that Province, and to the discharge of the public debt of that Province.

93. In all cases where the Legislature of any Province may make laws in relation to the public debt of that Province, it shall be subject to the provisions of this Act, in so far as they are applicable to the Province of that Province, and in so far as they are not repugnant to the provisions of the Act in relation to the Province of that Province.

94. The public works and property of each Province, enumerated in the third schedule to this Act, shall be the property of Canada, and shall be managed and administered by the Governor-General, and shall be subject to the provisions of this Act, in so far as they are applicable to the Province of that Province, and in so far as they are not repugnant to the provisions of the Act in relation to the Province of that Province.

95. The Governor-General shall have power to make laws in relation to the public debt of each Province, and to the public debt of each Province, and to the public debt of each Province, and to the public debt of each Province, and to the public debt of each Province, and to the public debt of each Province.
