KEON UNIVERS SOCIAL.—Os Tassday evaning of last week the ladies of Knox Church gave a social in the basement of the church. Owing to the storany state of the weather the attendance was small, but the affair was greatly onlyed by those present, an excellent repast being furnished together with an interesting programme of amusements. Societies were given by Rev. Messre. Ore and Sciveright; readings by Messre. H. I. Strang and J. R. Miller; excitation by the object is to sugment the funds of the association, it is to be hoped that the citizens will are out strongly and fill the hall.

H. & N. W. RALEWAY.—It is of importance to business men to have convenient access to the citize for the purpose of making purchases. We have now close connection with Toronto, London, Buffale and, although few appear to be fully aware of it, Hamilton. The Hamilton & North Western Railway, the southern branch of which running to Purt Jarvis crosses the Grand Trusk at Caledonia, provides a short and expeditious route to the "ambitious city." Persons leaving Godorich by the morning train will reach Hamilton at noon, and avoiding the delay at Paris, may return the following day on the mail train. The route is beautiful one, particularly at the approach to Hamilton and a trip over art of week before last.
