A Merry Christmas to All!

Methodist College Prize-giving Night.

Last night in the College Hall the closing exercises and distribution of prizes for the pupils of the Methodist College took place. There was a large attendance, principally parents and friends of the students. Hon. R. K. Bishop, Chairman of the College Board, presided. He was accompanied on the platform by His Excellency the Governor, the Prime Minister, Rev. Dr. Curtis, Supt. of Education and other members of the Board and College. After some prefatory remarks by the chairman, the Headmaster, Mr. Harrington, read the report of the year, showing progress and success for the College. There was a marked depletion in the senior boys' class on account of enlistments and no less than seventeen Collegians had laid down their lives for Empire and Homeland during the past year. The prizes and diplomas were then presented to the winners by His Excellency the Governor, who congratulated the teaching staff and paid eloquent testimony to the "Old Boys" who had made the supreme sacrifice for the cause of liberty, righteousness and justice. Encouraging speeches were also made by the Prime Minister and Dr. Curtis. At the close a vote of thanks proposed by Mr. R. F. Horwings, K.C., was tendered the Governor. The pupils then gave a most interesting entertainment. Every number was well received. The prize list, in addition to which C.H.E. Diplomas were awarded, are as follows:

McMurdo's Store News

THURSDAY, Dec. 21, 1916.
We have a few Leather Dressing Cases left and can offer them at attractive prices. As is well known, leather goods are very scarce and dear this season, and the better grades of them are almost unobtainable. Our stock was obtained before the last advances, and you can get a very fine dressing case, for a lady or man friend at a reasonable price. Come in and see them.
Though we have disposed of a good many packages of Willard's Chocolates during the past few days, we have still a good selection of these high class dainties left, some hand-some packages. As gifts, boxes of chocolates are always in order.

Christmas Tree

For St. Thomas's Little Ones.

Yesterday afternoon seventy-five little people of the primary department of St. Thomas's Sunday School were given a Christmas Tree at Canon Wood Hall. The Tree was the donation of Master Gordon Winter, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Winter, who with his parents presented a gift to every child present. The Tree was gaily decorated and lighted with bright electric lights. The children who assembled in the lower hall proceeded in a body upstairs, where stood the mammoth Christmas Tree, laden with numerous toys. A short programme consisting of choruses and recitations was run off. The Rector, Rev. Edgar Jones, on behalf of the children thanked the donor and those associated with him for the splendid gifts and entertainment.
To-night the older children are having a Christmas Tea in the Parish Hall.

"Sports and Pastimes"

The popular athletic number is replete with interesting reading matter and illustrations. An article of special merit is that written by the Gallipoli veteran, Lieut. Cyril Carter, who tells of his experiences in hospitals in the Mediterranean and in London. It is Lieut. Carter's first contribution to local periodicals, we think, and it proves that he is able to wield the pen as well as the sword, and it is most interesting reading. Lieut. Carter pays a fitting tribute to the nurses and hospital workers. Although badly wounded he was able to see the humorous side, and he relates his own experiences in a most entertaining way. His reference is made by other writers to fallen athletes including Capt. Donnelly and O'Brien, Lieut. Cecil Carr, Lieut. Herbert Herder, Owen Steele, Serg. Al. Duffitt and many others. Mr. R. G. MacDonald, our brilliant poet, writes at his best in memory of the Captains and Lieutenants. Ayre, who made the supreme sacrifice on July 1st. Mr. MacDonald has written many artistic poems but his masterpiece is of the four brave young athletes who died for King and Country. The book is as usual of great value to all interested in our manly exercises.

WANTS TO BE RECALLED.

BERLIN, Dec. 20.
General Berthelot, the French military strategist, has asked to be recalled from the Roumanian front, where he has been occupied for some time past, according to a report received by the Hamburg Fremdenbla, which says the majority of British officers attached to the Roumanian general staff have left for England. The newspaper likewise reports a long conference between King Ferdinand of Roumania and General Alexieff, of the Russian army, regarding the military situation. As regards the Roumanian army, General Alexieff will report to Emperor Nicholas, says the newspaper, owing to the lack of opportunity at present for the Emperor to receive the King in person.
