Low Temperature.

At night the temperature along railway line stood from 10 above below zero. The N. W. storm had been raging for 36 hours very severe, the drift being high. In some sheltered parts of country roads the snow is piled the fences and reaches within feet of the telegraph wires.

Trains Held Up.

The storm of yesterday and last night completely tied up the railway, no train movements along the line being made. The train from Placentia is held up at Whitbourne, as is also the train from Heart's Content. Incoming and outgoing trains on the Carbonear branch were cancelled for yesterday. The rotary plow was sent out this morning from the city to clear the lines.

Feels Well for First Time in Twenty Years

South River Man Says Tanlac is No More Like Other Medicines Than Night is Like Day.

"Tanlac is the only thing that has ever helped me and that's saying a good deal, for I have been trying for twenty years to get relief," said Joseph Boone, a fisherman, living at Clarke's Beach, South River, while at Connors' drug store in St. John's, recently.

"I believe," he continued, "I had the worst case of stomach trouble a person could have and live. At the time I got Tanlac I could not eat and digest enough to give me strength to do my work. Even toast and tea, or just anything, no matter how light, caused me to suffer untold agony. I had indigestion so bad that I actually dreaded to eat and would go for days at a time without eating rather than suffer the misery I knew so well would follow."

"I tried every medicine I ever heard of. During the past two months alone I spent thirty dollars trying to find something to give me a little ease, but it was just like money thrown away. I finally got a bottle of Tanlac on the advice of some friends, and it is no more like other medicines I have tried than day is like night. It certainly does the work and if the next few bottles do me as much good as the last one has I will be in as good shape physically as I have ever been. My stomach is feeling like a new one already for I can eat just anything I want without a pain or an uncomfortable feeling afterwards. Now that my stomach is in good shape and my food digests properly I am building right up. I have already gained several pounds in weight, my sleep is sound and restful at night, and can almost feel myself getting stronger every day. I am one of the happiest men in the world and I have reason to be, for it's the first time in twenty years that I have really felt well. Tanlac is great, there's no getting around that fact, and I will always praise it for what it has done in my case."

Tanlac is sold in St. John's by M. Connors, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative; in Harbor Street, by Thomas Wakely & Sons; in Placentia, by James Murphy & Son; and in Topsail by J. K. Bursell—adv.

Poultry Association Meeting.

On Monday night the Newfoundland Poultry Association held their annual meeting in the Board of Trade Rooms. Mr. H. W. LeMessurier, C.M.G., presided. The Secretary's report on the recent show, the treasurers statement of finance and letters from Judge Jackson and Prof. Landey, were read and received with great enthusiasm. Prof. Landey sent in reports of an egg-laying competition being held at Truro, N.S., at the Agricultural College there. Thirty pens of five birds each are entered, Barrd Rocks, White and Buff Leghorns, R. S. and single comb R. I. Reds and Wyandottes, comprise the entries. The contest started No. 1, and so far the birds laying the largest number of eggs is a pen of 5 Rose Comb Rhode Island Red hens, owned by Mr. John Retson, Truro, laying 170 eggs to date, weighing 304 ounces; second pen is a pen of Barrd Plymouth Rocks, owned by John R. McMullen, Truro, with 133 eggs, weighing 265 ounces; White Leghorns are third with 120 eggs, weighing 229 ounces, owned by R. H. Evans, of Trenton. We notice Judge Henry, and old visitor to Newfoundland Poultry shows, of Shubenacadie, has a pen of Rhode Island Reds in the competition. One pen only from Antigonish has not laid a single egg to date.

Prof. Lunder has sent a photograph of the pens to Vice-President G. R. Williams. The presidents report for the year was read after which the election of officers took place, which resulted as follows:—
