Humber Special Time Table

The Railway Management have decided to change the time table of the Humber special leaving Humbermouth for St. John's. Until further notice this train will leave Humbermouth on Wednesdays at 5 p.m. instead of 7 p.m., as formerly. The train will leave St. John's on Mondays at the usual hour.

Magistrates Court

A drunk was discharged.
A motorist appeared before court charged with (1) Driving a motor car on the public highway in a reckless manner, (2) Driving a motor car on the public highway at a speed dangerous to the public. The hearing was postponed until Monday next. A medical man one of the principal witnesses was unable to attend.
A charge against a truckman for a breach of the Street Traffic Regulations was dismissed.

Admiral Field Honoured

Upon the return of the Special Service Squadron to home waters, Vice Admiral Sir Frederick Field was honoured by His Majesty the King by having conferred upon him the title and his active rank was confirmed of K.C.M.G. It is notable that the close of the remarkable voyage was not marked by any public function and beyond a civic reception and the honours conferred upon the Admiral and certain of the officers, the affair was treated as a most ordinary event.

Next Week's Plays

UNDER DISTINGUISHED PATRONAGE.

"The Veiled Woman," the opening play of the Young-Adams Company, will be under the distinguished patronage of his Excellency the Governor, Mayor Cook and the United States Consul. Special invitations have been sent these parties by H. Wilmot Young, Manager and owner of the above mentioned company.
"The Veiled Woman" is the play for the first night of the Young-Adams engagement at the Casino. Miss Marjorie Adams (who will be remembered for her wonderful work in the opening play last engagement here is a butterfly on the wheel) will have a splendid part in Marjorie Pansy. All ladies will be interested in Miss Adams' wonderful gowns. Mr. Young promises some real creations. Miss Adams has long been noted for her wonderful wardrobe. She carries 3 trunks of beautiful creations that will be worn as only Marjorie Adams can wear them, her tall and stately figure with her beautiful blonde hair making every pose a picture. No wonder all are looking forward to the Young-Adams engagement at the Casino. Did we name the three first plays? Well, here they are:—First play, "The Veiled Woman" by Wm. Devereaux; second play "Thumbs Down" by Myron C. Fagan; third play "Mary's Ankle," three of New York's biggest hits with a capable company and special settings with Vaudeville between acts. No wonder Young-Adams Company will be welcomed to St. John's. Seats now selling at Hutton's Music Store, Water Street.
