THE ANGLICAN SYNOD.—The Synod of the Diocese of Toronto finished its business yesterday. We are glad to see by the proceedings that the unpleasant disputes and bickerings which have taken place between Mr. Boulton and Mr. J. H. Cameron and the Committee in charge of the Clergy Trust Fund are supposed to be at an end.

There can be no question concerning the usefulness of such an enactment. Registration has before now been found very often efficacious in preventing litigation and other difficulties, and it is to be hoped that the provisions of the new law will be conscientiously adhered to.
