Wild gats are either more numer-ous or less cautious this year in the Highlands than usual, since not for many years have there been so many captured. Within a period of three months one gamekeeper, according to the "Scotsman," trapped no fewer than fourteen in the wilds of the Big Glenmoriston. One of the number was caught by a trap, baited with the carcase of a fox, which was placed on the bank of a large pool of water for foxes or winged vermin. the cats was trapped alive, and it said to be one of specimens captured for a long period of years in the Glen. In this hurrying age folks want to get their money back right away. They want immediate returns, and big returns at that. They have no nationes: they can't wait. They have no patience; they can't wait. Tell a man to plant wainuts in that piece of rocky or waste land, and he will ask you "What for?"

Why, to grow trees. They will be commercially valuable in fifteen years; in thirty years the timber in them will be worth so much a pound—it will rank value with the precious metals. Fifteen years-thirty years!-why, he will be dead, maybe, long before that, and what good would they be to him? In the meantime that waste patch would furnish scanty pasture for two months every year for a breachy cow, a garden-plundering ców, a cow built in the college and rigged with curses in the eclipse and rigged with curses dark. In the long run the trees would cow, that has to be spiked to the barn a block and tackle before she will consent to be milked. A tree will stay where you put it. HALLEY'S COMET and GALVANIT

GALVANIT is expected to appear in the leading stores of the North West about the same time as the GREAT COMET. You will be looking for these wonderful phenomena. One is expected to illuminate the sky, but it is certain that GALVANIT will cast a radiance over the EARTH.

GALVANIT METHOD

is the new way of electroplating metal upon metal by unskilled labor in your workshop or home, so simple that a child can use it. Applied by a moistened rag or brush. A pure deposit of metal is guaranteed every time you polish with Galvanit.

GALVANIT METHOD is endorsed by the leading scientific authorities of Great Britain, including such men of world-wide repute as Pro fessor Silvanus Thompson, D.Sc., F.R.S., B.A., etc., president of the Royal Society of Arts, England.

Described as the greatest scientific discovery since radium.
