The contest in London West for reeveship seems to have settled down between Messrs. Bartram and Platt, while for the deputy reeveship Messrs. Scarrow and Rockett are close contestants. The greatest interest centers in the probibition vote.

The children of the Grosvenor Street Baptist Sunday school held their annual tea-meeting last evening. After the little people had been regaled with cakes and confectionery they were entertained by Mr. Kershaw with his lime light views. At the close of the entertainment several of the pupils received prizes for regular attendance.

—As a token of the good feeling that exists between employer and employes, Mr. C. S. Hyman presented an old and faithful employe of C. S. Hyman & Co. with a handsome gold watch, bearing the following engraving: "To John Connell, on his completion of 21 years service in the employ of C. S. Hyman & Co., Dec. 25, 1890." Mr. Connell is well known to the residents of Richmond streets as Hyman's teamster.

—A man named A. A. Grant, who is wanted on the charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses, was brought here yesterday by Detective Temple, of Montreal. Grant is one of the Atias agents who have been selling the books in the cities and towns of the Dominion for over a year. It is charged that he borrowed a book from Mr. Cleghorn, of this city, last March and forgot to refurn it. He had been arrested at Montreal for some similar offense.

—The Sunday Call, of Newark, N. J., contains the following note which will interest many residents of London, Berlin and other Canadian places: "Miss Detta E. Ziegler, of London, Canada, is a lote addition to the musical talent of this city. Miss Ziegler has a pure soprano voice of beautiful quality, and has located here to pursue her studies in New York. She sanglast Sunday evening in the Roseville beautiful quanty, and has fecated here to pursue her studies in New York. She sang last Sunday evening in the Rossville Avenue Church, and her fine voice and unaffected style gained her many admirers."

—Cora Tanner, who will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House to-morrow is a charmingly beautiful woman. She is an actress of decided merit, possessing rare talents and accomplishments. Her supporting company is unusually strong, including Harold Russell, Owen Westford, Käson Dixon, Theodore Brown, George Rdesen, Misses Virginia Buchanan, Minule Dupree and Ada Dwyer. Miss Tanner's play 'The Refugee's Daughter" has Leen highly praised by the New York press. It is full of touches of human nature, powerful situations, brightened by the comedy business. Queries and Replies.

The following questions have been asked: I. Who are entitled to vote on bylaws? 2. Does every man have a vote in every ward in which he owns property? 3. In what year did the G. W. R. enter London? 4. When was the first Provincial Fair held in London?

Entertained by Living Pictures.

The second entertainment of the Y. M. C. A. series entitled "Living Pictures" was presented at Victoria Hail last evening. The performance consisted of clever pictorial representations, musical imitations, dialect impersonations, and a burlesque on legerdemain. The entertainment was as novel as it was interesting and enjoyable, and was replete with rich lumor. Of the company Mr. Frank G. Reynolds, as humorist; Miss Clara Lamont Hilton, vocalist; Mr. Richard Carle, impersonator, and Mr. D. H. Prescott, as musical imitator, each showed praiseworthy ability. Should the entertainment be repeated again the company will, no doubt, be greeted with a larger house.

The Minsrel Show.

A second crowded house greeted the Young Liberal Minstrels at the Grand last evening. The minstrels felt even more at home than they did at the initial performance and threw a vim and dash into their respective parts that greatly enhanced the merit of the show. From the tinkle of the curtain bell, for the first part, until the finish, there was not the faintest semblance of a hitch, owing to the energy of Mr. Charles Ether, stage manager. The jokes were brushed up somewhat, while the balloon specialty and fancy drill were applicated to the echo. Mr. Fred Evans' female impersonation we also improved upon and was received with roars of laugiter. The boys go to Brantford tomorrow might, and will no doubt have a large audience. A Will 5,000 Years Old.

A last will and testament over 5,000 years old has recently been found in Egypt. The testator, Sekiah, executed in his own handwriting in favor of his brother, a priest of Osirls. The property disposed of was to to Sekiah's daughter upon the brother's death, the internal evidence of the document plainly showing that even in those distant days the Egyptian recognized a woman's right to own, administer, and dispose of property.

Health of the Queen Health of the Queen.

There is not the slightest foundation for the story which has been going round the papers, that "the Queen's health is the cause of some anxiety in the inner circles of the court." The Queen is perfectly well, and has driven out every afternoon since her arrival at Windsor, even on the coldest days. It is only natural that the Queen should not be so robust and so active as she
