Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey of Woodstock, returned home on Monday after a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel R. Gillies.

BURWELL ROAD.
A Flourishing Cheese Factory—Spring Crops Doing Poorly.
Burwell Road, June 1.—Mr. H. Riley, who has been attending Strathroy Collegiate Institute, is home sick for the past week and is recovering slowly. The Muncy Road cheese factory is in a flourishing condition this year, under the management of Mr. L. Whitling, who is a first-class cheesemaker, and larger quantities of milk are received daily than in previous years. Spring crops are looking very poor in this neighborhood. If a change does not take place soon the yield must be light.

GLEN OAK.
Glen Oak, June 1.—North Ekfrid Presbyterian Church, anniversary services are to be held on Sunday, June 12, and an entertainment will take place on the Monday evening following, when speakers from far and near will be present to entertain the crowd. A committee and a host of friends, the presence of all former pastors as far as possible. All welcome.
