Bridge at Colenso.

Gen. Hilliard's Column Advancing to the Relief of Ladysmith.

Practically Certain That Gen. Methuen Has Been Reinforced-Twelve Train-Loads of Troops Sent North From Cape Town,

London, Dec. 2.-A special dispatch received here yesterday from Frere, dated Nov. 28, says that while attempting to blow up a 500 foot bridge over the river at Colenso the Boers were driven back by artillery and mounted infantry. The dispatch indicates that Gen. Hildyard, who is advancing to the relief of Ladysmith, has overcome the difficulties spread in his path by the Boers at Frere and has reached the south shore of the Tugela River.

It is supposed that the Natal advance has been delayed by the necessity of getting supplies to Pietermaritzburg, but not a word emanates, from any of the various commands.

SILENCE SUPERVENES. London, Saturday, Dec. 2-4:30 a.m.-Absolute silence has fallen over affairs in South Africa. The war office has not yet received Lord Methuen's casualty list. The public and the press are beginning to murmur at the delay, which keeps many families in a state of painful suspense. It is regarded as practically certain that Lord Methuen has been reinforc-ed by half a battalion of the Gordon Highlanders, a regiment of cavalry and a battery of artillery, and that De Aar is being daily reinforced by troops to hold the lines of communication.

HEAVY WAR CARGO.

London, Dec. 2.-The steamer Ka-, rame sailed yesterday for South Africa taking one of the heaviest war car-goes on record. It includes 40,000,000 rounds of small arm ammunition, 7,000 shrapnel shells, 4,000 lyddite shells, 851 boxes of fuses, 40 boxes of pistol ammunition, and a large number of star shells for discovering the enemy's position at night, and for signalling. Each of these shells contains six magnesium light stars which burn for fourteen seconds, and seven stars which burn from 34 to 36 seconds.

MOVEMENTS OF THE ENEMY. The Daily Mail's correspondent at Queenstown, Cape Colony, telegraphing under date of Nov. 27, says: "The Boers are reponted to be advancing on Dordrecht, Molteno and Indwe. The 1,000 men is marching south from

The whole operation may be intended to compel forces protecting Methuen's line of retreat to retire, thus leaving him iso-lated. Some Boer troops are said to have withdrawn hastily from Lady-grey and Barkly East. Pretoria, Nov. 27 .- Via Lorenzo Marquez, Nov. 30. — Lieut. Winston Churchill, who was captured in the armored train fight between Estcourt and Colenso, is held at Pretoria racecourse, along with other British prisoners, where he is exceptionally treated. Burghers who came up from the Tugela River with prisoners speak highest terms of Churchill, who, as they say, fought with conspicnous gallantry.

Advices from the borders are to the effect that the bombardment of Kimberley and Ladysmith continues with unabated vicor.

The British sustained enormous losses in the battle at Modder River. Gen. Cronje, who has been transferred to Kimberley from Mafeking, is command of the forces opposing Lord Methuen.

The French steamer Gisonde has arrived in Delagoa Bay with European mails and a French ambulance corps for service in the Transvaal.

CANADIAN IN THE BELMONT BATTLE.

London, Dec. 2.-The Daily News' correspondent at Cape Town cables the views of Charles Lewis Shaw, Canadian journalist, on the battle of Belmont. Mr. Shaw observes: "How the British scaled the steep kopjes is a mystery. . They fought their way up yard by yard. Orders from the officers were unnecessary. The last kopje had been insufficiently shelled when the British reached the foot, so they halted until the artillery somewhat cleared the way. There we lost most heavily, 40 dropping close together. Then, in the face of a terrible fire, the kopje was climbed. After five minutes' taste of the bayonets the Boers fled. lancers started in pursuit, but the horses were exhausted. At Ladysmith.

THE SIEGE A FARCE. London, Friday, Dec. 2.—George W. Stevens, war correspondent of the Daily Mail, in a dispatch to that paper, covers events in Ladysmith from Nov. 16 to Nov. 20. He says: "The siege is degenerating into a farce. hardship is the monotony, which has had formed a ministry, and moved to been broken only by one reconnoissance and one night alarm. "A few houses have been hit lately. The smoking-room of the Royal Hotel has been smashed. The same morning several officers, including Col. Rhodes, were about to breakfast. A floor plank was blown up and stuck in the ceiling. Nobody was hurt, and the officers were at breakfast five minutes later. "The health of the officers is excellent, though they are fattening from want of exercise. "The latest eccentricity of the enemy was manifested at 7:30 o'clock on the evening of Nov. 18, when they fired three rounds from a howitzer. The second shot pierced the roof of the Royal Hotel, ricochetted off a wall, flew out of the front door, and kicked up a paving-stone, without bursting. Mr. Stark, a naturalist, who was preparing a book on the entomology of was standing in the doorway. He was hurled into the street, and both his legs were torn off. He said, 'Look after my cat, and died. The same afternoon a shell fell among some Gordon Highlanders, who were playing football, and plowed a hole in the ground. The men continued their game, but afterwards, finding that they offered too good a target, they substi-tuted mule polo for football. "At 12:30 o'clock on the morning of Nov. 19 I awoke and found the enemy firing a salvo of twenty guns. Though the fire was distributed evenly in the camp, it sounded as if each shell was coming into one's bed. We rashly ac-cused the Boers of Sabbath-breaking, but their time was three-quarters of an hour late, and they merely intended to wind up the week in good style. "Today (Nov. 19) there is the usual Sunday truce. On Nov. 20 there was some languid shelling. No damage was done except to a church, the porch of which was smashed by a shot from the enemy's Long Tom."

Disease Abating in Essex-Traced to Taunton, Mass.

Toronto, Dec. 2 .- To the parliament buildings, from Belle River, in Essex county, come ugly rumors in connec-tion with the present outbreak of smallpox in that and other parts of Essex county. Many of the people there are greatly incensed at the statements made that the mild type of smallpox prevailing there is really that dread disease, and in the measures that have been taken to stamp out the disease. On Wednesday night the barn of Dr. Anderson was burned, and his horse perished in the flames. Dr. Anderson has charge of the smallpox cases in Belle River and Rochester townships, and it is strongly suspected that the fire was incendiary, and the result of anger on the part of some of the people. The council appealed thorities. against the decree issued by the police presidency forbidding them to erect a walled inclosure with an inscription in memory of the victories in the uprising of 1848. Lord Rosebery Deprecates Its Allusion to France.

AT BERLIN.

Berlin, Dec. 1. - The use of the word 'alliance" in Mr. Chamberlain's speech at Leicester has caused a general flutter in the German press. The Chauvinist organs protest vigorously. The Kreuz Zeitung, the organ of the military party, comments with scorn and indignation. Other journals, inthat the meeting of Count Von Buelow had arisen in colonial questions, but advance: that no alliance exists, although the Between the On conferences between the German and British statesmen at Windsor Castle 18 to 25......35c left an equally good impression upon all. The Journal Des Debats says it doubts the existence of an Anglo-German agreement, as Mr. Chamberlain asserted, and adds that it would be cruel and indecent upon the part of Emperor William to accept the acclamations of the Dutch and visit their queen if he had really signed what is tantamount to the death decree of the two South African republics. The Evening Standard says Mr. Chamberlain referred to no alliance by treaties. The St. James' Gazette says Mr.

Lord Rosebery, speaking at Edin-burgh, deprecated Mr. Chamberlain's reference to France in his speech at Leicester, and said: "We have no right to go into the gutters to fish up the derelict press of any country, and to hold it up to scorn or as a motive of our policy. It is impossible that the Queen could be besmirched by such attacks, which only recoil on the attacker; and whatever the degraded outburst may mean, it does not represent the best or highest decision of France. We have been ever ready to flout other nations, and it is no wonder that Great Britain is unpopular abroad. I do trust that this undiplomatic frankness will cease, for these stinging words rankle long afterward, and it is not for statesmen to speak under the passing irritation of the moment.

It was proved that Anderson hired the horse from Liveryman Fulmer and then drove to Toledo. He was found guilty and sentenced to five years in Kingston.
